RETURNS TO CAMPUS IN 2008

HIGHERS ATHLETICS COMPLEX & SIMPSON ATHLETICS AND ACADEMIC CENTER TO SERVE AS NEW BEARS' DEN

Ground was broken May 10, 2007, on the new $34 million state-of-the-art Alvin O. and Dorothy Highers Athletics Complex and the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center, which will allow Baylor football to return to campus for the first time in nearly 50 years when it is completed in July 2008. The new complex is being built near the on-campus Turner Riverfront Complex on University Parks Drive.

The crown jewel of the Highers Athletics Complex is the 96,300-square foot Simpson Athletics and Academic Center which will bring to campus functions previously housed at Floyd Casey Stadium:

- Football team locker room and weight room
- Main athletics training room and equipment room
- Football coaches offices
- Team meeting rooms
- Athletic administrative staff offices
- Academic center for all Baylor student-athletes

"This will be recognized throughout the Big 12 and the nation as one of the premier athletic facilities. It's going to be a powerful signal of the commitment at Baylor to having the highest level of success in intercollegiate athletics," said Baylor Director of Athletics Ian McCaw during ground breaking ceremonies for the Highers Athletics Complex.

ACADEMIC SLIPPORT

2006 Big 12 Player of the Year and two-time Kodak All-American Sophia Young received her undergraduate degree from Baylor President Dr. John Lilley in May 2006 ceremonies.

The office of Student-Athlete Services has the overall responsibility for the academic welfare and support of Baylor's student-athletes, both scholarship and non-scholarship, in 18 varsity sports. Support activities include:

-  Academic advising and degree planning.
-  Weekly academic counseling meetings.
-  Review of student-athletes' academic performance.
-  Supervised study hall facilities.
-  Tutoring in a variety of academic subjects.
-  Life skills which will prepare the student-athletes for lifetime activities after completion of their collegiate athletic careers.

Baylor placed 71 football players on the 2006-07 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Student-Athlete Services is located on the 4th floor of the 530,000-square foot Baylor Sciences Building (A wing) and is open 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Monday through Friday and 2:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. on Sunday. In July 2008, the office of Student-Athlete Services will move into the state-of-the-art Highers Athletic Complex.

Baylor football had a school-record 18 players on the 2006 Academic All-Big 12 team, including a program-record 11 first-team selections.

Baylor punter Daniel Sepulveda was the only Division I-A player to earn 2006 first-team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors in the classroom and unanimous consensus All-America recognition on the field.

BAYLOR'S FIRST-TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

BAYLOR COACHING STAFF

The 2007 Baylor football coaching staff boasts more than 160 combined years of experience in the professional, collegiate and high school ranks.

LEE HAYS

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

In his first season as Baylor's offensive coordinator, the Bears established more than 20 individual and team passing records. As a team in 2006, Baylor ranked 11th nationally in passing offense with its 275.0 per-game average.

GUY MORRISS

Head Coach/Offensive Line

The only active Division I-A head coach to have played in the Super Bowl, Guy Morriss' Bears have improved their Big 12 win total in each of the last three seasons. Morriss, a former NFL All-Pro offensive lineman who played in Super Bowls XV (Eagles) and XX (Patriots), will again direct the Bears' O-line in 2007.

Seven members of Baylor's 2007 coaching staff played NCAA Division I football and five played professional football.

LARRY HOEFER

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Abilene native Larry Hoefer has produced All-Big 12 honorees in each of his four seasons directing the Bears' safeties. He coached the school's first, two-time, first-team All-Big 12 coaches selection, Willie Andrews, in 2004-05. The 2007 season marks Hoefer's first as Baylor's defensive coordinator.

KASEY DUNN

Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator/Wide Receivers

A three-time All-America wide receiver at the University of Idaho, Kasey Dunn is in his first season at Baylor. The 15-year assistant coached previously at Arizona, TCU, Washington State, New Mexico, Idaho and the University of San Diego, and brings an impressive track record of player development to Waco.

JASON PHILLIPS

Recruiting Coordinator/Inside Receivers

As an All-America athlete at the University of Houston, Jason Phillips was on the receiving end of many "Run-n-Shoot" passes from Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware. Phillips led the nation in receiving in 1987 and 1988, becoming the first NCAA player in 23 years to accomplish such a feat in two consecutive seasons, and then went on to a successful NFL career. He joined the Baylor staff from his alma mater, where he helped the Cougars to three bowl appearances in four seasons.

GARY KINNE

Linebackers

A standout linebacker at Baylor from 1986 through 1989 who still ranks among the school's all-time leading tacklers, Gary Kinne returned to his alma mater in January 2006 to coach the position he played as a Bear. Kinne's first season along the Baylor sideline saw Joe Pawelek earn 2006 Associated Press Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and first-team freshman All-America honors.

JOHN WILLIAMS

Strength & Conditioning

John Williams oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning programs for its 18 intercollegiate athletic teams. He has trained seven first-round NFL Draft picks and nearly 40 NFL players in his young career.

ERIC SCHNUPP

Assistant Coach/Tight Ends

Former Miami Hurricane Eric Schnupp is in his first season as a Baylor assistant coach, having spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as offensive line coach at West Texas A&M. A three-year letterman for the Hurricanes, Schnupp helped the 'Canes to a pair of nine-win seasons (1998 and 1999) and victories in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl and the 2000 Gator Bowl.

DON WNEK

Defensive Line

Third-year defensive line coach Don Wnek, a 27-year coaching veteran, has coached three All-Big 12 defensive ends—Montez Murphy and Marcus Foreman, both of whom were 2005 honorable mention choices, and 2006 Sporting News All-Big 12 Freshman Team member Jason Lamb, in his first two seasons at Baylor.

CORNELL JACKSON

Running Backs

Cornell Jackson, in his 21st season of coaching at the collegiate level, enjoys an outstanding reputation for developing top-notch running backs. At the University of New Mexico, he coached 2005 Mountain West Conference offensive player of the Year DonTrell Moore, who became just the sixth player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards four times in a career.

CLAY JENNINGS

Cornerbacks

First-year assistant coach Clay Jennings tutors the Baylor cornerbacks and is a graduate of nearby La Vega High School. He joined the Baylor staff from the University of Houston, where he helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA title.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Ben Randle was a reader during West Avenue Elementary School's annual Reading Camp.

For Baylor football players, giving back to Waco and surrounding communities is as much a part of Guy Morriss' program as touchdowns and tackles. The 2006-07 Bears were rewarded for their outreach work with Baylor's first-ever Champs Cup, which is given to the Baylor athletic team which participates in the most community service activities during the year.

The Bears take time to reach out to Central Texas youths through appearances at local schools, hospital visits and participation in special events such as the Compassion Ministries Adopt an Angel program.

BAYLOR GAME-DAY TRADITIONS

In its 105th season, Baylor's Golden Wave Marching Band has been a fan favorite game-day tradition since 1902.

Baylor's current bear mascots, "Lady" and "Joy," are named in honor of former Baylor First Lady Sue Sloan and former First Lady Joy Reynolds. Baylor's live black bear mascot has been a beloved tradition since 1917.

The Bear Claw hand signal made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw symbolizes pride in Baylor athletics.

A freshman spirit organization, the Baylor Line, fosters game-day excitement and school spirit as it welcomes the team onto the field before every home football game.

STATE-OF-THE- FACILITIES

BU

A state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure was constructed on Floyd Casey Stadium's west side in 1999.

BU

Baylor's 8,000-square foot locker room contains 130 pro-style wood lockers, two big-screen televisions, eight 36-inch televisions and three skylights to provide natural lighting.

BU

To enhance the game-day experience at Floyd Casey Stadium, a state-of-the-art video board was installed at the stadium in 2002. BaylorVision video-replay boards are also installed at the Ferrell Center, Baylor Ballpark and Gettman Stadium.

BU

The 2004 season marked the debut of the Prestige playing surface at Floyd Casey Stadium. The newest generation of artificial turf on the market is similar to rubber infill fields currently in use at several Big 12 and NFL stadiums.

-ART

Expanded and renovated in 2001, Baylor's weight room features state-of-the-art equipment suited to fit every demand of the Bear football program.

Baylor football will return to campus in July 2008 with the completion of the 96,300-square foot Highers Athletics Complex & Simpson Athletics and Academic Center.

STATE OF THE ART

STRENGTH &

The methodology employed in John Williams' strength and conditioning program is based on the future development of the athletes to ensure that they become the best possible players on the field. The program considers the physical attributes that directly impact the athlete's performance during competition.

It is the intention of the program to evaluate, improve and maximize each athlete's individual potential through strength, speed, power, agility, skill and flexibility training. In addition to these areas, the motivation and discipline needed to produce a positive work environment that reinforces good character traits in the student-athletes remains an integral part of the strength and conditioning program.

CONDITIONING

BOWL GAMES

The Big 12 Conference will be represented in an impressive eight bowl games in 2007. The league owns one automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series in addition to tie-ins with the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, Valero Alamo Bowl, PetroSun Independence Bowl, Texas Bowl, Gator Bowl, Brut Sun Bowl and the Insight Bowl.

Baylor has appeared in 16 bowl games, posting an 8-8 record.

Baylor is one of six Big 12 teams to own an all-time record of .500 or better in bowl games.

DUAL-SPORT ATHLETES

Is he a football player that competes in track, or a track athlete that plays football? It's a question often asked at Baylor due to the nearly 100 student-athletes in school history that have contributed to the success of both the football team and the nationally prominent track program.

After earning All-America honors as a member of Baylor's third-place 4 x 400-meter relay team at the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Robert Quiroga returned a school-record two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2003 and received All-Big 12 honors for his outstanding work on special teams and at wide out for the Bears.

An NFL All-Pro football player, Reyna Thompson also earned All-America honors and was a conference champion in the high hurdles during his career at Baylor.

Del Shofner was a member of Baylor's world-record setting relay team and later enjoyed an 11-year career as a back in the NFL from 1957-67.

An All-American and three-time consensus All-SWC football player Gerald McNeil also earned All-America honors as a sprinter.

A four-time track All-American in the short sprints, Bruce Davis went on to play two years in the NFL as a wide receiver.

All-American Davy Duncan finished second in the nation in the hurdles, while playing as a defensive back on the Bears' football team.

Braelon Davis ran the second leg of Baylor's 2004 NCAA outdoor championship 4 x 400-meter relay, then earned Sporting News All-Big 12 freshman team honors as a cornerback for coach Guy Morriss' 2004 football team.

A three-year letterwinner in football, Lee Miles holds Baylor's school indoor record in the long jump with a leap of 26-1 3/4.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1996, the Big 12 Conference has established itself as one of the nation's elite football leagues. Consider that ...

The Big 12 leads all BCS conferences with five BCS National Championship game appearances.

Five times in the last seven years a Big 12 team has played in the BCS National Championship game. Big 12 institutions have combined to win 18 national championships on the gridiron all-told.

The Big 12 has placed five or more teams in bowl games every season since the league's inception with six or more programs earning a bowl invitation nine times in its 11-year history. In 2006, the Big 12 went 4-4 in bowl games.

Current Big 12 programs have appeared in 304 bowl games all-time. Four times, including 2006, the Big 12 has sent a record eight teams to bowl games.

Featuring the conference's top teams from the South and North Divisions, the 2007 Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship game will be played Dec. 2 at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas.

National television is routine in the Big 12 as the league has agreements with ABC, Fox Sports Net, ESPN and Versus.

Guy MORRISS

Head Coach/Offensive Line
Fifth Season at Baylor
TCU, 1973

The only active Division I-A head coach to have played in a Super Bowl, Lone Star native Guy Morriss continues the successful transformation of the Baylor football program. For the second consecutive year, the former NFL All-Pro offensive lineman will coach the Bears' offensive linemen. Under Morriss' leadership over the last four seasons, the Bears have produced ...

- More overall (15) and Big 12 (seven) victories than the program registered in the six years (1997-2002) prior to his arrival (13 overall, including three Big 12) in Waco.
- A school-record three Big 12 wins in 2006; the third consecutive year Baylor improved its league win total.
- A school-record 18 2006 Academic All-Big 12 honorees, which included a program-best 11 first-team selections and the program's second four-time pick in Daniel Sepulveda. Over the last four years, 45 Bears have earned Academic All-Big 12 recognition, including 24 first-teamers.
- Thirty-one (31) coaches All-Big 12 selections on the field in four years, just three shy of the program's total (34) from 1997-2002. Morriss and his staff have coached the program's only two-time, first-team coaches All-Big 12 selections in Willie Andrews and Sepulveda.
- The first two-time Ray Guy Award winner ever in Sepulveda, who first won the award as the nation's top collegiate punter in 2004 and then repeated in 2006 after leading the nation in punting with his 46.5-yard average.

- Baylor's first unanimous consensus All-American since 1986 and its first, two-time, first-team Academic All-American since 1990 in Sepulveda, the only Division I-A player to earn 2006 first-team Academic All-America honors in the classroom and unanimous consensus All-America status on the field.
- The first Baylor player to earn a season-ending Big 12 Coaches Player of the Year award in Sepulveda, the league's 2006 Special Teams honoree, and the first to earn a season-ending Associated Press award in linebacker Joe Pawelek, who received 2006 Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors.
- Multiple NFL Draft picks in the same year for the first time since 1999 with Sepulveda's (Pittsburgh, 4th) and cornerback C.J. Wilson's (Carolina, 7th) 2007 selections.

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

As Guy Morriss enters his fifth year patrolling the Baylor sideline as head coach and second as offensive line coach, his transformation of the school's football fortunes has the Bears poised to take the next step and earn their first bowl bid since 1994.

Introduced as Baylor's 24th head football coach on Dec. 11, 2002, Morriss inherited a proud program that had fallen on hard times and produced just 13 victories in the six seasons (1997-2002) prior to his arrival. He and his staff have already posted more overall victories (15) and Big 12 wins (seven) than the Bears registered in the six previous years (13 overall/three Big 12). In fact, Morriss has directed Baylor to seven of its 11 all-time Big 12 victories and its only two league road wins in the conference's 11-year history.

The 2006 campaign saw Baylor win a school-record three Big 12 Conference games and produce the first two-time Ray Guy Award winner ever in Daniel Sepulveda, a consensus 2006 All-American on the field and an ESPN The Magazine first-team All-America pick in the classroom for the second consecutive year. Sepulveda was Baylor's first unanimous consensus All-America pick since 1986.

Redshirt linebacker Joe Pawelek earned first-team freshman All-America honors and was named the 2006 Associated Press Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year, the first Bear ever to win an individual Big 12 AP football award. All-told, seven of Baylor's eight 2006 losses were at the hands of bowl-eligible teams and four were by 10 or fewer points. In addition, nine Bears received AT&T All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches.

In Morriss' first four seasons in Waco, 31 Bears have earned all-conference recognition from the league's coaches and his staff has produced four of the program's six first-team selections, its only (Willie Andrews and Sepulveda) two-time first-team performers and its lone four-time selection in Sepulveda.

A school-record 18 Bears received 2006 Academic All-Big 12 honors, including a program-best 11 first-teamers. Baylor also produced multiple NFL Draftees for the first time since 1999, as Sepulveda (Pittsburgh Steelers, fourth round) and cornerback C.J. Wilson (Carolina Panthers, seventh round) heard their names called during the draft. Five Bears also signed NFL free agent contracts.

At the box office, Baylor football broke two attendance marks in 2006. A stadium-record crowd of 51,385 was on hand for the Bears' Oct. 28 game against Texas A&M and a record 259,559 fans passed through the Floyd Casey Stadium turnstiles to break the program's single-season total home attendance mark.

Under Morriss' leadership, the 2005 Bears fashioned the school's most successful season in a decade by posting a 5-6 record, the program's first five-win campaign since a 7-4 mark in 1995. Baylor came within a whisker of its season-long goal of reaching a bowl game for the first time since 1994, but it suffered two heartbreaking overtime losses on the road to dash its postseason hopes.

The 2005 campaign also saw Baylor post multiple Big 12 victories (2-6) in the same season for the first time in the league's history; finish fifth in the Big 12 South Division for the first time after nine years of sixth-place showings; and end road losing streaks of 24 games overall (with a season-opening victory over SMU) and 37 games in Big 12 play (with its first-ever Big 12 road win at Iowa State).

A then-school-record tying 14 players earned 2005 Academic All-Big 12 honors, including a then-program-record eight first-teamers. A school-record 12 Bears earned 2005 SBC All-Big 12 Conference honors from the coaches with Andrews, who went on to be drafted by the NFL's New England Patriots, becoming the program's first two-time first-team All-Big 12 coaches selection. Sepulveda became the first Bear since 1963 (and only the third ever) to earn academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season.

Baylor's 2005 on-field resurgence also showed at the box office, where it averaged 38,899 fans for its five 2005 home games, the program's highest single-season home average since 1995 and its sixth-highest mark all-time. Since Morriss' arrival in Waco, the Bears' attendance at Floyd Casey Stadium has increased nearly 25 percent from 28,018 in 2002 to the 37,080 they averaged in 2006.

Playing with the nation's second-youngest team in 2004, Morriss' second year saw Baylor post a 3-8 overall record and deliver one of the greatest victories in school history, as the unranked Bears knocked off No. 16 Texas A&M, 35-34, in overtime at Waco. That upset win, Baylor's first over the Aggies since 1985, ended both the Bears' 13-game losing and 18-game winless strings to its longtime rival from College Station. The A&M victory also marked BU's first over a nationally ranked opponent since 1998 (and first over a rated league foe since 1995), which snapped a 22-game skid to ranked teams.

The 2004 campaign also saw Sepulveda earn the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter and become only the third individual in program history to win a season-ending national college football award, joining Mike Singletary (two-time Davey O'Brien winner) and Thomas Everett (Thorpe Award). Sepulveda, who also became the first Bear to earn All-America honors on the gridiron since 1995, was one of two Baylor players (Andrews was the other) to garner 2004 first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches. Oklahoma (eight) and Texas (six) were the only schools with more first-team honorees than Baylor.

It marked just the second time in the Big 12's 10-year history that Baylor placed two student-athletes on the coaches' first team, and first since 1996. The 2005 NFL Draft saw the Kansas City Chiefs select DE Khari Long in the sixth round.

Known for his no-nonsense approach and aggressive recruiting, Morriss' Bears finished 3-9 in his rookie season. However, there were enough moments of youthful brilliance along the way to give Baylor's tradition-rich program hope for the future.

"They're getting better every year under Guy Morriss. ... There's no doubt that he is a tough, hard-nose guy, and his team has taken on his attitude."

— opposing coach in Athlon Sports 2007 Preview Magazine

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

After dropping the first two games of the 2003 campaign, Baylor put together a three-game win streak highlighted by a 42-30 victory over two-time Big 12 North division champion Colorado in the Bears' league opener. The win string was BU's longest in some seven seasons and the Colorado triumph allowed Morriss to become just the third Baylor coach since 1950 (and only the sixth ever) to win his conference debut on the Bear sideline.

Morriss' first season also saw the Baylor defense limit then-No. 1 Oklahoma to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards (only national champion LSU held the Sooners to fewer yards on the ground) and register the sixth-highest one-season sack total (29) in school history and its best mark since 1994. The BU offense produced its first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in All-Big 12 running back Rashad Armstrong and its quarterbacks completed a then-school-record 56.7 percent of their passes, while the Bears' special team units recorded four scores.

Five Bears earned 2003 all-conference honors and three players participated in season-ending All-Star games, as did Morriss, who served as the head offensive coach for the Gray squad at the 2003 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. He was joined on the Gray's sideline by center Cedric Fields.

In addition to the program's improvement on the field, it also continues to make strides in the classroom. Since the fall of 2003, Morriss' Bears have averaged a 2.46 semester grade-point average with a high mark of 2.64 for the spring 2007 term. An average of 38 football players since Morriss' arrival have been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll which salutes student-athletes for achieving a 3.00 mark or better during each semester.

Off the field, Baylor's players continued to give back to the community by making numerous appearances at local schools and participating in several service projects throughout the area.

Morriss came to Waco from Lexington, Ky., where he spent the previous six seasons helping resurrect the Kentucky football program, the last two as the Wildcats' head coach.

At Kentucky, Morriss and his accomplished staff were credited with rebuilding Kentucky's relationships with high school coaches, as well as earning the respect of his players with a fair, no-nonsense approach. He beefed up the team's off-season conditioning by instituting stringent 6 a.m. workouts, designed to toughen the Wildcats physically and mentally.

In 2001, Morriss took over a Wildcat program in disarray. With NCAA probation looming in the school's immediate future, Morriss was introduced as Kentucky's head coach on Feb. 6, 2001, the day before national signing day, and began to stabilize the program.

Despite the inherent obstacles, Morriss confidently rallied the Wildcat players and staff. In his first season as a head coach in 2001, he guided UK to a 2-9 record, which included three losses by four points or fewer to Southeastern Conference opponents.

A season highlight included a 56-30 win at Vanderbilt that resulted in National Player of the Week honors for Wildcat quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who threw for 453 yards and six scores against the Commodores.

In the second half of the 2001 season, Kentucky led the SEC in passing offense (376 yards per game) and ranked third in total offense (456.2 per game) while scoring an average of 29.8 points.

Year two saw the fruits of Morriss' leadership become quickly evident. The 2002 Wildcats turned some heads with a 7-5 record, including wins over Mississippi State, eventual SEC West Division champion Arkansas and 17th-ranked Louisville. The Wildcats, who received votes in the Associated Press Top 25, recorded the program's fifth seven-win campaign since 1955. UK's defeats included a four-pointer against South Carolina, a seven-point loss at then-No. 7 Florida and an unbelievable three-point setback on the game's final play to then-No. 17 LSU.

In Morriss' two seasons as Kentucky's head coach, 10 Wildcats earned All-SEC recognition, three were named All-American and 43 garnered academic All-SEC honors. In addition, three players were selected in the NFL Draft, including Dewayne Robertson, a 2003 first-round pick of the New York Jets and the first Kentucky defender taken in the first round since Art Still's 1978 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs. In his six seasons all-told in Lexington, four Kentucky offensive linemen were selected first-team all-conference and three earned freshman All-America honors.

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

GUY AND JACKIE MORRISS

The Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 20 in passing offense five of Morriss' six years with the program and in the nation's top 15 in total offense in three of those seasons. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, Kentucky finished 109th nationally in total offense.

Morriss spent four seasons as Kentucky's assistant head coach and offensive line coach before being promoted to head coach. During his time as an assistant, the Wildcats twice earned bowl invitations and their offense scored more points and generated more yards than any previous four-year period in school history.

Recognized as an outstanding teacher of line play, Morriss began his coaching career as an offensive line assistant coach with the New England Patriots from 1988 to 1989 under head coach and NFL Hall of Famer Raymond Berry. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) High School in 1991. Morriss was then selected as the head coach of the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992, but the league ceased operations prior to the start of the season.

From 1992 to 1993, he coached the offensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University before returning to the NFL in 1994 as a member of Buddy Ryan's Arizona Cardinals staff. Morriss then spent the 1995 campaign with the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans, where he worked with former Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. That year, San Antonio was second in the CFL in points scored and advanced to the semifinals of the Grey Cup playoffs.

Prior to his Kentucky tenure, Morriss spent one season at Mississippi State, where he coached the offensive line in 1996. Bulldogs' offensive tackle Brent Smith garnered first-team All-SEC honors and was a second-round draft selection by the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Morriss first made headlines in the Lone Star state as an All-Southwest Conference guard at TCU. A three-year letterwinner for the Horned Frogs, Morriss was a two-time All-SWC performer (second team as a junior in 1971 and first team in 1972) who started 28 games in his collegiate career. Following his final collegiate season, he played in four all-star games — the Blue-Gray Game, the Senior Bowl, the Coaches' All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Morriss captained the Horned Frogs in his senior year and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

A 1973 TCU graduate (secondary education), Morriss was a second-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles who went on to play 11 seasons at center for the franchise. He helped the Eagles to four consecutive playoff berths (1978-82) under legendary coach Dick Vermeil, including NFC East Division crowns in 1979 and 1980, and was a starter on the organization's 1980 NFC championship team that played in Super Bowl XV. Morriss, an Eagles' team captain for five seasons, was selected to the 1981 All-Pro team.

From 1984 to 1987 Morriss played for the New England Patriots, helping Berry's team to playoff appearances in 1985 and 1986. He was a member of the Patriots' 1985 AFC championship squad and played in Super Bowl XX.

When the 2004 Super Bowl was played in Houston, The Dallas Morning News named Morriss to its All-Texas High School Super Bowl Team. He is the only active NCAA Division I-A coach to have played in the Super Bowl.

Morriss and his wife Jackie are the parents of five daughters: Colleen, Melanie, Kerry, Savannah Rae and Austin Leigh. The couple also has four grandchildren — Colin, Aidan, Kade and Kyleigh.

COORDINATORS

Kasey
DUNN

Assistant Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator/Wide Receivers
First Season at Baylor
Idaho, 1992

Kasey Dunn joined Guy Morriss' Baylor staff on Jan. 2, 2007, as the Bears' special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach after spending the previous three seasons as running backs coach at the University of Arizona. On April 25, 2007, Dunn took on additional duties as the Bears' assistant head coach.

In his 15th season as a collegiate coach and 12th in a Division I-A program, Dunn has worked on both sides of the ball during stops at Arizona (2004-06), TCU (2003), Washington State (1998-2002), New Mexico (1996-97) and Idaho (1993 and 1995). In addition, he served minority internships with both the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (2003) and Denver Broncos (1997).

A standout wide receiver at the University of Idaho from 1987 through 1991, Dunn was a three-time All-American who still holds Vandal school records for career receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,847), while ranking No. 2 in touchdown receptions (25).

At the end of his collegiate career, his marks for receptions and receiving yards ranked No. 2 all-time in Division I-AA behind Jerry Rice and they stand sixth and 10th, respectively, today. Dunn led the nation in both receptions per game (8.0 rpg) and receiving yards per game (105.8 ypg) as a junior in 1990. He ranked No. 3 nationally with 85 receptions as a senior in 1991 and was fifth with 73 grabs as a sophomore in 1989. The Vandals claimed three Big Sky Conference titles during Dunn's playing career and went 24-12 on the field.

The 1992 Idaho graduate played with professionally with the CFL's British Columbia Lions (1992) and Edmonton Eskimos (1993), as well as the NFL's Houston Oilers (1992) before launching his coaching career in 1993 at Idaho as a volunteer assistant working with the Vandals' wide receivers. Dunn then worked as tight ends and receivers coach at San Diego in 1994 before returning to his alma mater as cornerbacks coach in 1995.

He served as cornerbacks coach at New Mexico from 1996 through 1997, helping the Lobos to the 1997 Insight.com Bowl. One of Dunn's Lobo pupils was Scott McGarrahan, an eight-year NFL veteran.

Dunn then moved to Washington State from 1998 through 2002 as assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and running backs coach on Mike Price's Cougar staff.

A member of a coaching staff which directed the Cougars to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history (Sun Bowl following the 2001 season and Rose Bowl following the 2002 campaign) and started a three-year run of 10-victory campaigns, Dunn coached two WSU running backs to school records during his time in Pullman. Kevin Brown rushed for a sophomore school-record 1,046 yards in 1998 and Deon Burnett established a WSU freshman standard by rushing for 974 yards in 1999.

After coaching cornerbacks at TCU in 2003 and helping the Horned Frogs to an 11-2 record and the Fort Worth Bowl, Dunn spent three seasons (2004-06) as running backs coach at Arizona. There, he coached running back Mike Bell to a third consecutive 900-yard season and fourth place on the Wildcats' all-time rushing list with 3,163 yards. Dunn coached three future NFL backs at Arizona.

A San Diego, Calif., native, Dunn and his wife, Janelle, have two daughters, Kayla and Lauren.

COORDINATORS

Lee
HAYS

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Second Season at Baylor
Texas A&M-Kingsville, 1996

The architect of West Texas A&M's high-octane spread offenses from 2003-05, Lee Hays enters his second season as Baylor's offensive coordinator and first as quarterbacks coach.

In Hays' first season at Baylor, the Bears' offense averaged 23.6 points per game, its highest mark since 1996 (24.2 ppg), and 315.2 yards per contest. The spread attack also allowed Baylor to break nearly every school game and season passing record, as the 2006 Bears ranked third in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in passing yards per game (275.0 ypg).

West Texas A&M enjoyed its most successful season in 55 years in 2005, largely due to the success of Hays' offense. The Buffaloes went 10-2 to record their first winning season since 1998 (the program had won a combined seven games in the previous four years) and post the school's first 10-win campaign since 1950. Along the way, WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference title with an 8-1 record, its first league championship since 1986, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the first time in school history where it lost in the quarterfinals.

The 2005 Buffalo offense led the NCAA Division II ranks in passing offense at 363.8 yards per game, while ranking No. 7 in scoring offense (40.3 ppg) and No. 9 in total offense (477.3 ypg). WTAMU also led Division II in pass completions (361) and was second in attempts (540), marking the third straight season it placed among the nation's top three in both categories. Hays' 2005 offense set school records for completion percentage (.669) and total offense yards per attempt (6.9 ypa).

At West Texas A&M, Hays also coached offensive lineman Pat McCoy, a first-team American Football Coaches Association All-American and finalist for the 2005 Gene Upshaw Award given annually to Division II's top lineman (offensive or defensive), and quarterback Dalton Bell, a Harlon Hill finalist who ranked third nationally among Division II leaders in total offense (349.2 ypg) and 13th in pass efficiency (154.9 rating). Bell set school and conference single-season records for both total offense (3,843 yards) and passing yards (3,799) while throwing a school-record 31 touchdown passes which was one off the Lone Star Conference record.

After ending his playing career at Texas A&M-Kingsville, he joined former Baylor offensive coordinator Ron Harms' Javelinas' staff as tight ends and tackles coach in 1997. Hays went to WTAMU as offensive line coach in 1999, then returned to Kingsville as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2000 before moving back to the offensive side of the ball as the program's o-line coach from 2001-03. He rejoined the West Texas A&M staff in 2003 as offensive coordinator and line coach.

During his 11-year coaching career, Hays has coached five All-Americans, 25 first-team all-conference players, three conference offensive Linemen of the Year award winners, one Dave Rimington Award winner and two NFL Draft picks. His coaching tenure has also helped produce five conference championship teams and six NCAA Division II playoff entrants.

Before launching his coaching career, Hays served in the United States Marine Corps from 1987 through 1996 where he rose to the rank of staff sergeant and completed Marine Corps Sniper School. He served America as both a staff noncommissioned officer and as a recon marine during his military career.

Hays played defensive end/linebacker at Cisco (Texas) Junior College for two years, then spent one year at Abilene Christian. He received his bachelor of science degree from Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1996 and his master's degree from WTAMU in 2004.

A native of Del Rio, Texas, Hays and his wife, Roxann, a fourth-generation Baylor graduate, have a daughter, Shanlee, and a son, Cade.

COORDINATORS

Larry
HOEFER

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Fifth Season at Baylor
McMurry, 1973

Texas native and longtime defensive coach Larry Hoefer enters his fifth season as Baylor's safeties coach, his first as the Bears' defensive coordinator and his 33rd year on the sidelines all-told.

The lone remaining member of Guy Morriss' original Baylor staff, Hoefer has coached at least one All-Big 12 performer every year and his pupils have led the Bears in tackles three times in the last four seasons.

In his first year at Baylor, Hoefer coached the Bears' leading tackler in Maurice Lane, who tallied 129 stops from his free safety spot en route to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, and Las Vegas Classic invitee Derrick Cash, the team's fourth-leading tackler as an outside safety. Another of his pupils, outside safety Willie Andrews, led the team in interceptions and was third on the squad in tackles.

The 2004 campaign saw Andrews earn first-team All-Big 12 honors as a safety from the Dallas Morning News and as a return specialist from the league's coaches, while Lane garnered first-team all-conference recognition from the San Antonio Express-News. Lane again paced the squad in tackles, while Andrews again ranked third in tackles and recorded a team-high three sacks.

Lane led the Bears in tackles for the third consecutive year in 2005 en route to first-team All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and the Dallas Morning News. Andrews earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition from the league's coaches as a safety to become the first two-time first-team coaches All-Big 12 performer in school history and was later selected in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

In 2006, outside safety Maurice Linguist and free safety Dwain Crawford both earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches.

Hoefer spent two seasons as safeties coach on Morriss' Kentucky staff before making the move to Waco. He went to UK from Texas-El Paso, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2000 season. The Miners posted an 8-3 regular season record, were co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. The bowl game marked Hoefer's sixth as a coach, in addition to four at Texas Tech and one (1988) during his previous stint at UTEP.

Using an eight-man front under Hoefer's guidance, UTEP reduced its rushing yardage allowed from 208.2 yards per game in 1999 to 153.8 ypg during the 2000 season. UTEP held five of its league opponents under 100 yards rushing. The Miners also ranked 19th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Hoefer worked for coach Spike Dykes at Texas Tech from 1994-99, where he coached the Red Raiders' outside linebackers and worked with former Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner. Tech was bowl-eligible every season and played in the Cotton, Copper, Alamo and Independence bowls during Hoefer's tenure. Among his pupils were Marcus Coleman, a first-team All-American in 1995 who played for the Dallas Cowboys, New York Jets and Houston Texans, and Ty Ardoyn, who went on to play for the New York Giants. Hoefer also coached All-Big 12 picks Robert Johnson and Jody Brown. The Red Raiders ranked first in the nation for takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

Hoefer had multiple responsibilities as an assistant at Missouri from 1989-93, working his way up from receivers coach to defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. His first term at UTEP, from 1982-88, was capped by a 10-win season and a berth in the 1988 Independence Bowl.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Hoefer stayed in his hometown and played defensive back at McMurry University, graduating in 1973. He was team captain and earned the squad's MVP honor.

Hoefer's first coaching stop was at Tarleton State from 1974-75 as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs. He went on to coach at Big Spring (Texas) High School in 1976 and Abilene (Texas) High from 1977-80. Hoefer coached at West Texas State in 1981 before joining the UTEP staff for the first time.

Hoefer and his wife, Kathy, have three children — married daughter Alison Schupp, and sons Tyler and Bennett — and three granddaughters, Sydney, Samantha and Sophia Schupp. Bennett graduated from Baylor in the spring of 2007 and earned three letters for the Bears as a free safety, while Tyler graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy and is a first lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps.

COORDINATORS

Jason
PHILLIPS

Recruiting Coordinator/Inside Receivers
First Season at Baylor
Houston, 2001

Former Houston All-America wide receiver Jason Phillips is in his first season as Baylor's inside receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. He joined the Bears' staff on Jan. 2, 2007, from his alma mater, where he had coached for four years.

At Houston, Phillips was a member of Art Briles' staff that took the Cougars to three bowl games in four years, capped off with a 10-4 record, a Conference USA title and a 2006 Liberty Bowl bid. He coached the Cougar wide receivers in three of his four seasons and spent one year (2005) as cornerbacks coach.

Under Phillips' tutelage in 2003, Brandon Middleton was named first-team, All-Conference USA as well as an honorable mention All-America selection after setting a C-USA receiving record with his 1,250 yards on just 55 receptions. In 2005, Vincent Marshall was named a second-team All-Conference USA wide receiver.

Marshall, the MVP of the 2006 Conference USA championship game, ended his career as Houston's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards. Phillips also mentored two Conference USA All-Freshman receivers in Leonard Gibson and Donnie Avery.

Prior to his return to Houston, Phillips coached wide receivers at Texas State in 2002 and was an offensive assistant under head coach Dana Dimel at Houston in 2001.

As an All-America athlete at UH, Phillips was on the receiving end of many "Run-n-Shoot" passes from Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware. Under the leadership of head coach Jack Pardee, Phillips led the nation in receiving in 1987 and 1988, becoming the first NCAA player in 23 years to accomplish such a feat in two consecutive seasons.

Phillips garnered All-Southwest Conference honors, was the 1987 SWC Newcomer of the Year and received All-America recognition from United Press International (UPI) in his rookie season at UH. In addition to earning All-SWC first-team honors and being named SWC co-Offensive Player of the Year, Phillips was a consensus first-team All-America in 1988. He was also selected to the SWC's All-Decade Team for the 1980s.

After a successful playing career at Houston, Phillips was drafted by the Detroit Lions in 1989 and played for two seasons under head coach Wayne Fontes. In his first season with the Lions, Phillips hauled in 30 receptions for 352 yards including a rookie-record 10 passes for a 155-yard performance against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Phillips was acquired by the Atlanta Falcons in 1991 and played for four seasons under head coach Jerry Glanville and offensive coordinator June Jones. As a Falcon, he was part of a receiving core that included Pro Bowl receiver Andre Rison, Mike Haynes, Drew Hill and Mike Pritchard.

He continued his professional playing career and joined Pardee, his former UH coach, in the Canadian Football League in 1995. Phillips spent the 1995 season with the Birmingham Barracudas and was named to the South All-Star Team before being acquired by the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1996. In two seasons with the CFL, Phillips totaled 136 receptions for 2,029 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Phillips began his coaching career with the Spring Football League's Houston Marshals in 1999. He tutored wide receivers and served as an assistant offensive coordinator for two seasons, helping guide the Marshals to a 1999 league title.

In 2001, Phillips returned to the NFL as an offensive intern coach for the Minnesota Vikings. Under the direction of head coach Dennis Green and offensive coordinator Sherman Lewis, Phillips worked closely with wide receivers Randy Moss, Chris Carter, Jake Reed and Chris Walsh. He earned another offensive intern coaching position with the Atlanta Falcons in 2002 under head coach Dan Reeves.

A Houston native, Phillips was a football standout at Ross Sterling High School where he earned All-District and All-Greater Houston honors as a senior quarterback. He continued his football and academic career at Taft Junior College, playing both quarterback and wide receiver.

Phillips was named team MVP as well as a first-team all-conference selection as a rookie quarterback and earned all-state honors as a wide receiver at Taft before transferring to UH.

He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UH in 2001. Phillips is married to the former Kimberly Robinson and was inducted into the Houston Hall of Honor in 2006, joining his teammate Andre Ware in the illustrious hall.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Cornell
JACKSON*Assistant Coach/Running Backs
First Season at Baylor
Sterling [Kan.] College, 1986

Cornell Jackson, who spent the past two seasons as running backs coach at New Mexico, is in his first season as the Bears' running backs coach and his 21st as a college assistant.

In 2006, Jackson coached first-team All-Mountain West Conference tailback Rodney Ferguson, who rushed for 1,132 yards in leading the Lobos to a New Mexico Bowl appearance. A year earlier, Jackson pupil DonTrell Moore earned 2005 Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors after becoming just the sixth player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards four times in a career.

Prior to his second coaching stint at New Mexico, Jackson spent three seasons (2002-04) at Washington. He coached the Husky running backs in 2004 and had added duties as UW's recruiting coordinator. Jackson coached the Husky safeties in 2003 after instructing the UW inside linebackers during his first season in Seattle. He helped tutor Marquis Cooper, who led the team in tackles in 2002-03 and was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft.

Before joining the Husky staff, Jackson worked at Houston for two seasons (2000-01) as the Cougars' linebackers coach. He mentored 2001 Conference USA co-Defensive Player of the Year Wayne Rogers. While at Houston, Jackson worked alongside first-year Baylor inside receivers coach/recruiting coordinator Jason Phillips.

Jackson enjoys an outstanding reputation for developing top-notch running backs. Prior to his Houston tenure, he tutored running backs at Arizona State from 1996-99, instructing Sun Devil standouts J.R. Redmond, Terry Battle, Jeff Pulk, Terrell Smith, Michael Martin, Delvon Flowers and Bruce Perkins. Five of those players were selected in the NFL Draft while Redmond and Battle earned All-Pac-10 honors.

Every season Jackson coached the Sun Devil running backs ASU finished in the top four in the Pac-10 in rushing. The 1996 Arizona State team that played in the 1997 Rose Bowl led the league with a 248.5-yard average. The following season the Sun Devils topped the Pac-10 at 193.8 yards per game.

He began his coaching career as running backs coach at Butler County [Kan.] Community College in 1987 before moving on to Central Missouri as a graduate assistant coach from 1988-89. From 1990-91, Jackson worked as the linebackers coach at Utah State and then coached the same position at Pacific from 1992-94. He then spent the 1995 campaign as outside linebackers coach at New Mexico before going to Arizona State.

Jackson has taken advantage of NFL internship programs to work for several of the league's teams during their off-season. He was an intern coach for linebackers for the Seattle Seahawks in 1993, worked with the St. Louis Rams' running backs in 1999 and was an intern coach for the Denver Broncos' running backs in 2001. In the summer of 2004, Jackson served as an intern with the San Diego Chargers coaching staff, working with linebackers.

The 1986 Sterling [Kan.] College graduate was a two-time all-conference defensive back (1982 and 1983) at Hinds [Miss.] Junior College. The Jackson, Miss., native is married to the former Lorri Raser.

North Texas, 1996

Clay Jennings joined coach Guy Morriss' Baylor coaching staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2007 after spending the previous two years in a similar position at Houston.

Jennings worked as Houston's safeties coach during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, helping the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances (2005 Fort Worth Bowl and 2006 Liberty Bowl) and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors and freshman safety Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman honor squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw one of his pupils, Rocky Schwartz, earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and freshman Kenneth Fontenette was an honorable mention Sporting News Freshman All-America pick.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003 and 2004) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. Three players Jennings tutored while with the Cajuns were Antwan Spann (currently with the New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (currently with the Houston Texans) and Mike Adams (currently with the Arizona Cardinals).

Before going to ULL, he worked two years (2001 and 2002) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fourth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (Feb. 2000-March 2001), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (March 1999-Feb. 2000) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (Jan. 1998-Feb. 1999). At SAU, Jennings mentored the Seattle Seahawks starting left cornerback, Jordan Babineaux, while at Morningside he coached Matt Walker, a first-team All-America safety.

A four-year letterwinner as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas from 1992 through 1995, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A entry in 1995. He began his coaching career first as a student assistant (1996) and then as a graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

The 1996 North Texas graduate (bachelor's of science in kinesiology) and his wife Belinda, have two children, son Kirby and daughter Kenzie. He graduated from Waco's La Vega High School in 1992.

Gary
KINNE

Assistant Coach/Linebackers
Second Season at Baylor
Baylor, 1990

A standout middle linebacker at Baylor from 1986 through 1989 who went on to become a highly successful high school football coach in the Lone Star state, Gary Kinne returned to his alma mater as linebackers coach in January 2006.

His first season on the Baylor sideline saw redshirt freshman linebacker Joe Pawelek earn first-team Freshman All-America honors and second-team All-Big 12 recognition from the league's coaches. Selected as The Associated Press' 2006 Defensive Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, Pawelek also earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors from several media outlets after leading the Bears in tackles (86). In fact, Kinne's linebackers ranked first, second and sixth on the squad in tackles.

Kinne returned to his alma mater from Canton [Texas] High School, where he had served as head football coach and athletic director since 2003.

Selected as the 2005 Adams USA National Head Coach of the Year, Kinne guided Canton to a 12-2 record and the regional finals of the 2005 Class 3A playoffs. In addition to the national award, bestowed upon the nation's top prep football coach that has not only won on the field but who also serves as a positive influence to America's youth, Kinne was also named both the 2005 Fox Sports Southwest Class 3A Coach of the Year and the District 15-3A Coach of the Year after recovering from an April 2005 gunshot wound to guide the Eagles to a school-record 12 victories and their first district title in some 41 years. His Canton coaching staff was also honored as the 2005 15-3A Staff of the Year and his team received the 2005 Gordon Wood Award from the Texas High School Football of Fame.

Canton finished 8-4 and advanced to the second round of the 2003 state playoffs in Kinne's rookie season as head coach, then posted an 8-2 record in 2004 but just missed the playoffs after losing a berth on a district tie-breaker. All told, he fashioned a 28-8 (.778) three-year record on the Eagles' sideline and led his squad to a pair of playoff appearances.

Before being introduced as Canton's head coach and athletic director, Kinne spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Mesquite (Texas) High School, where he served as defensive coordinator in his final year. He spent one season as an assistant coach at Allen High School and three years at Kaufman High School, the last two as defensive coordinator.

A four-year letterman for coach Grant Teaff's Bears (1986-89), Kinne earned 1988 All-Southwest Conference honors as a middle linebacker after leading the Baylor defense in tackles, tackles for loss, interceptions and fumble recoveries. He ranks as the eighth-leading tackler in school history with 323 stops and his 144 career assisted tackles stand sixth on the Baylor all-time chart. The Bears posted three winning seasons during Kinne's playing career and won the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1986 to finish 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

Kinne, who captained the Bears for two seasons, received his undergraduate degree from Baylor in December 1990. He signed a free-agent contract with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles and was drafted by the World Football League's Orlando Thunder after his Baylor playing career before beginning his coaching career at Kaufman.

He and his wife, Laurie, have three children — G.J., Kellie and Landry.

Tight Ends/Offensive Line
First Season at Baylor
Miami, Fla., 2000

Eric Schnupp is in his first season as Baylor's assistant offensive line/tight ends coach. He joined the Bears' staff in March 2007 after spending three seasons as offensive line coach at West Texas A&M University.

At Baylor, Schnupp is reunited with Bears' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Lee Hays, who joined Morriss' staff in December 2005 after serving in a similar position with the Buffaloes.

Following the 2005 season, two of Schnupp's West Texas A&M pupils, Pat McCoy and Dejuan Skinner, earned professional contracts with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles.

In three seasons at West Texas A&M, Schnupp helped the Buffaloes to a 23-12 record, including a 21-4 mark over the last two seasons, with a pair of Lone Star Conference titles and two NCAA Division II playoff appearances.

Schnupp spent three seasons as offensive line coach at American Series High School in Miami, Fla., before breaking into the college ranks with the Buffaloes.

A native of Miami, Fla., Schnupp was a three-year letterwinner along the offensive line for his hometown Miami Hurricanes from 1997 through 1999. He helped coach Butch Davis' teams to a pair of nine-win seasons (1998 and 1999) and victories in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl and the 2000 Gator Bowl.

Schnupp graduated from Miami with a bachelor's degree in biology/secondary education in 2000. Following his Hurricane playing career, he spent one season with the XFL's Chicago Enforcers before launching his coaching career.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Don
WNEK*Assistant Coach/Defensive Line
Third Season at Baylor
Northern Illinois, 1974

Don Wnek, a specialist in pass rush and defensive line techniques with more than 25 seasons of collegiate and professional coaching experience on his resume, is in his third year as Baylor's defensive line coach. In 2006, redshirt freshman defensive end Jason Lamb earned All-Big 12 freshman team honors from The Sporting News.

Wnek joined the Baylor staff on the eve of the 2005 campaign and watched his starting defensive ends, Marcus Foreman and Montez Murphy, each earn honorable mention All-Big 12 honors. Murphy went on to play in the Hula Bowl and sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Green Bay Packers and spent the 2006 season with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Before joining the Baylor staff, Wnek spent the 2004 football season as the director of football of operations at Indiana and worked as a federal law officer for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security in 2003.

He was the defensive line coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 2002, his second tour of duty with the organization. Wnek served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach with the XFL's Birmingham Thunderbolts in 2001.

His collegiate coaching experience includes stops at Northern Illinois and Nevada. Wnek coached at NIU, his alma mater, from 1978-81, and at Nevada from 1982-89. During his tenure at NIU, he coached the outside linebackers and defensive line while with the Wolfpack he coached the defensive line and served as defensive coordinator from 1986-87. Nevada won the Big Sky title in 1986 with Wnek leading the defense and was a member of two other Big Sky championship teams during his Reno tenure.

Wnek was out of football in 1990, but returned to the coaching ranks in 1991, when he coached the San Antonio Riders of the World League (now NFL Europe) during the fall and the CFL's Tiger-Cats during the spring. In San Antonio, he worked alongside former Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. Wnek served on both teams coaching staffs in 1991 and 1992 before working strictly with Hamilton in 1993 and 1994. In 1995, he coached the defensive line and linebackers for the CFL's Memphis Mad Dogs, and watched as one of his pupils led the CFL in sacks.

He worked on the Montreal Alouettes' staff in 1996 and 1997, coaching the defensive line in 1996, when one of his players again paced the CFL in sacks, and the offensive line in 1997 before a one-year stint as defensive coordinator for the British Columbia Lions in 1998. The B.C. defense ranked first in the CFL in turnovers, interceptions and fewest rushing touchdowns allowed and featured five All-Western Division All-Stars under his guidance.

Wnek returned to the Alouettes in 1999 to coach the defensive line and stayed through 2001 before returning to the Tiger-Cats in 2002. Montreal won the Eastern Division title in 2000 and played in the Grey Cup. His 2000 line spearheaded a defense that led the CFL in nine categories including most sacks and fewest points allowed. From 1995 through 2000, the defenses in which he worked with topped the CFL in sacks every season.

A three-year letterwinner at defensive end at Northern Illinois (1970-72), Wnek led the Huskies with 11 tackles for loss totaling 70 yards during his senior season. He received his bachelor's degree in education from NIU in 1974.

Wnek's son, Eli, was a fullback and linebacker at Arizona from 1997-2001 and enjoyed a brief playing career with the Arena Football League's Arizona Rattlers.

He is married to the former Penny Smith of Mississauga, Ontario.

KING

Graduate Assistant/Defense
Second Season at Baylor
UTEP, 2004

Bobby King is in his second season as a Baylor graduate assistant working with the Bears' defensive unit.

King joined the Bears' staff in 2006 from West Texas A&M, where he coached the Buffaloes' defensive line in 2005. At West Texas A&M, King helped the Buffaloes to their most successful season in some 55 years at 10-2, a Lone Star Conference title and their first-ever NCAA Division II Playoff quarterfinal appearance.

A native of Louisville, Ky., King went to West Texas A&M from St. Martha [Ky.] School, where he coached the defensive line. He was a student assistant at Texas-El Paso for two seasons (2002-03), where he worked with the defensive line.

A teammate of former BU quarterbacks coach Wes Phillips at UTEP, King was a three-year letterwinner (1998, 1999 & 2000) and two-year starter along the defensive line. The Miners' defensive coordinator in his senior year was current Baylor defensive coordinator and safeties coach Larry Hoefer.

King received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from UTEP in 2004.

Ben
NOONAN

Graduate Assistant/Offense
First Season at Baylor
Bemidji State, 2000

Ben Noonan begins his first season as Baylor's offensive graduate assistant, however, he is no stranger to Bears' offensive coordinator Lee Hays, as the duo worked together at both WTAMU and Texas A&M-Kingsville.

In 2006, Noonan and former Baylor graduate assistant coach Scott Parr served as the Buffaloes' co-offensive coordinators following Hays' departure to Baylor. West Texas A&M went 11-2, won the 2006 Lone Star Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs with an offensive unit that ranked second nationally in passing yards (326.1 ypg), 14th in total offense (395.3 ypg) and 25th in scoring (30.0 ppg).

In 2005 as the team's inside receivers coach under Hays, Noonan helped Buff receivers set Lone Star Conference records in pass receptions (361) and receiving yards (4,365).

The Santa Rosa, Calif., native joined the WTAMU staff after coaching at Texas A&M University-Kingsville from 2002-04. He coached defensive backs at Mendocino (Calif.) Junior College before joining Hays in Kingsville.

Noonan played at Santa Rose Junior College from 1996-97 and earned all-conference honors and played in the 1997 Junior College All-American Bowl. He then played two seasons at Bemidji State (Minn.) University from 1998-99.

Noonan received his bachelor's degree in English from Bemidji State in 2000 and earned his master's degree in kinesiology/sports and exercise science from Texas A&M-Kingsville in 2004.

He is married to the former Joanna Leventis.

Sixth Season at Baylor
North Carolina A&T, 1995

John Williams Jr. joined the Baylor staff as the school's director of strength and conditioning in May 2002 and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in August 2006.

Williams, who had worked with more than 15 different sports at the collegiate level during previous stops at North Carolina and Oklahoma State, oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning program for its 18 intercollegiate athletic programs and provides day-to-day leadership to the Baylor football program's strength and conditioning plans.

A 1995 graduate of North Carolina A&T, Williams sandwiched two tenures at North Carolina (as a graduate assistant from 1997-99 and as assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2000-02) around a one-year stint as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State (1999-2000).

Williams has trained seven first-round NFL Draft picks and nearly 40 NFL players in his young career.

The native of Greenville, N.C., is married to the former Sherri Taylor of Kinston, N.C., and they have a daughter, Christina Josette.

Mike
SIMS

Assistant AD/Sports Medicine
27th Season at Baylor
Baylor, 1980

Mike Sims, considered one of the nation's leading authorities on sports equipment safety standards, is in his 27th year of service to Baylor's student-athletes, coaches and staff. He was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in August 2006.

Born and raised in Cedar Hill, Texas, Sims served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill High School, where he graduated from in 1975. He then spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1980 and his master's degree two years later.

Licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, Sims became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that position before becoming BU's head trainer in October 1984. Sims was promoted into his current post as Baylor's director of sports medicine in 1993.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for equipment such as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks.

Sims received the 2006 Dave Campbell Award from the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce and the 2007 NATA Service Award.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983, and the couple has two children: Jessica and Keith. He is a deacon at First Baptist Church Woodway.

Baylor, 2001

Odell James, a Houston native and four-year Baylor football letterman (1997-2000), was named to the dual position of assistant director of football operations and assistant strength coach in August 2004.

James joined the Baylor football staff from Waco's O & K Sports, a company he founded in August 2002. Prior to that, he spent one academic year (2001-02) as a teacher and coach in the Waco Independent School District. James served as the seventh grade basketball coach at Waco's St. Louis Catholic Middle School during the 2000-01 season, guiding the team to a district championship, while also working as a personal fitness assistant at Baylor's McLane Student Life Center.

One of the nation's most highly-recruited quarterbacks as a senior at Houston's MacArthur High School, earning Bluechip and Super Prep All-America honors in his final year, James redshirted his freshman season at Baylor due to injury. He then appeared in 22 games over the next three seasons at quarterback, drawing four starts as a sophomore in 1998.

Following his junior season, James moved to free safety for his senior year and played in all 11 games with three starts. He received his bachelor's degree in speech communication and sociology from Baylor in August 2001.

James and his wife, Kai'lah, a Baylor communications professor, have three children — Alexis, Gabrielle and Solomon.

Jim Trego joined the Baylor athletic department as the university's first assistant athletic director for administration and coordinator of men's sports in 1993. He was promoted to his current position in September 1994.

Trego supervises Baylor's football operations and is responsible for football travel logistics and home game management as well as serving as tournament director for Baylor-hosted NCAA Championship events.

He also has served as the department's capital project's manager for more than $45 million in capital improvements, including Baylor Ballpark, Gettman Stadium, the Baylor Tennis Center, the Whetsel Basketball Practice Facility and the Willis Family Equestrian Center. Trego is currently serving in a similar capacity for the Highers Athletics Complex, which will open in July 2008.

Trego joined the Baylor staff from the Western Athletic Conference, where he worked as assistant commissioner. While at the WAC, Trego handled business operations and was the coordinator of men's basketball officials.

Prior to his stint at the WAC, Trego worked at the U.S. Air Force Academy for 11 years in a variety of athletic administration positions. In addition to being assistant A.D. for business affairs, Trego was director of athletic administration and assistant athletic director for event management and facilities at the Academy. He was also the Academy's head cross country and assistant track and field coach.

Trego retired from the military as an Air Force officer with many years of involvement in the Academy's athletic program. His Air Force career began in 1976 when he was an instructional technologist at Vandenberg AFB, Calif., and a missile operations launch officer at Ellsworth AFB, S.D.

A 1975 graduate of South Dakota State, Trego was an all-conference cross country and track athlete for the Jackrabbits. He earned a master's degree from Northern Colorado in 1981.

Trego and his wife Tammy are the parents of a daughter, Bayley Anne and a son, Tyler.

SEASON PREVIEW

2007 BEARS AIM FOR BOWL BID

Over the last two seasons, the Baylor football program has made strides on the field, winning a program-best three Big 12 Conference games in 2006 and posting the school's first five-win season since 1995 a year earlier. The 2007 Bears hope to take the next step in the program's development and earn the school's first bowl bid since 1994.

Baylor returns 40 lettermen, including 11 starters, from its 2006 squad which went 4-8 overall (3-5 Big 12), but sustained four losses by 10 or fewer points.

Offensively, the Bears return four starters from last year's unit which averaged 23.6 points per game, Baylor's highest mark since 1996, and a school-record 275.0 passing yards per contest. Shawn Bell, who started 23 career games at quarterback, completed his eligibility, as did the Bears top rusher a year ago (running back Paul Mosley, 43.4 ypg) and six of their 10 leading receivers, including the top two-Dominique Zeigler (54 receptions) and Trent Shelton (53 receptions).

Three of the Bears' returning starters are along the offensive line—fifth-year senior guard Chad Smith, junior tackle Jason Smith, who has more career starts (20) than any returning Bear on either side of the ball, and junior guard Dan Gay. Junior wide receiver Thomas White, who averaged 14.3 yards on 26 receptions a year ago, is the only returning offensive starter at a skill position.

The Baylor defense, meanwhile, returns seven starters and eight of its top 10 tacklers, but it must replace All-Big 12 cornerbacks C.J. Wilson and Anthony Arline, as well as outside safety Maurice Linguist and nose tackle M.T. Robinson. That foursome combined to start 44 games in 2006, with Linguist (71 tackles) and Wilson (59 tackles), ranking third and fourth, respectively, on the squad in tackles. Baylor yielded 408.2 yards and 32.6 points in 2006.

Leading the Bears' defense in 2007 will be sophomore linebacker Joe Pawelek, a 2006 first-team freshman All-American who registered a team-high 86 tackles as a rookie. Senior linebacker Nick Moore, the Bears' second-leading tackler a year ago with 75 stops, also returns, as does junior rover Dwain Crawford, senior strong safety Brandon Stiggers, sophomore defensive end Jason Lamb, senior defensive end Geoff Nelson and junior defensive tackle Vincent Rhodes.

With the graduation of two-time Ray Guy Award winner Daniel Sepulveda and honorable mention All-Big 12 place-kicker Ryan Havens, there are big holes to fill in the Bears' kicking game. Junior Caleb Allen is expected to battle a pair of true freshmen, place-kicker Shea Brewster and punter Derek Epperson, for the top jobs. Sepulveda led the nation in punting as a senior in 2006 with his 46.5-yard average en route to unanimous consensus All-America honors, while Havens made 32-of-33 PATs and 11-of-14 field goals.

SEASON PREVIEW

COACHING STAFF
FEATURES FIVE NEW FACES

In the off-season, Baylor's coaching staff underwent a makeover as five new faces were added, and the dean of the Bears' staff, Larry Hoefer, was promoted to defensive coordinator.

After spending the past three seasons as running backs coach at the University of Arizona, Kasey Dunn is Baylor's new assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. Former University of Houston All-America wide receiver Jason Phillips will coach the Bears' inside receivers and serve as recruiting coordinator after helping his alma mater to three bowl games in four seasons. Morris also hired former University of Houston safeties coach Clay Jennings, a graduate of Waco's La Vega High School, as Baylor's cornerbacks coach.

Cornell Jackson, who coached running backs at the University of New Mexico the past two years and has 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, is the Bears' new running backs coach. Eric Schnupp joined the staff as tight ends and assistant offensive line coach after working three seasons in a similar position at West Texas A&M. He will assist Morris with the offensive line.

Hoefer, the only remaining member of Morris' original staff, was named the Bears' defensive coordinator in late February when Bill Bradley was hired as secondary coach of the NFL's San Diego Chargers.

Lee Hays returns for his second season as Baylor's offensive coordinator and will also tutor the Baylor signal callers in 2007, while Gary Kinne (linebackers) and Don Wnek (defensive line) are back for their second and third seasons, respectively, in the Baylor program.

The 2007 Baylor coaching staff boasts more than 160 years of experience at the professional, collegiate and high school levels. Seven members of Baylor's staff played NCAA Division I football and five played professional football.

BAYLOR CONTINUES TO IMPROVE UNDER MORRIS

Introduced as Baylor's 24th head football coach on Dec. 11, 2002, Guy Morris inherited a proud program that had fallen on hard times and produced just 13 victories in the six seasons (1997-2002) prior to his arrival. He and his staff have already posted more wins both overall (15) and in Big 12 play (seven) in four years than the Bears registered in the six previous years (13 overall/three Big 12) before Morris' Central Texas arrival.

Morris has directed Baylor to seven of its 11 all-time Big 12 Conference victories and its only two conference road wins, while improving the Bears' league win total in each of the last three seasons. He owns a 15-31 record in four seasons at Baylor and is 24-45 in six seasons as a head coach overall.

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE
ON TAP FOR 2007 BEARS

After playing seven games a year ago against teams that went on to earn bowl invitations, Baylor will face eight bowl teams in 2007, including six in Big 12 play. But, that's nothing new for coach Guy Morris, as 28 times in his first 46 games (including 25 of 32 Big 12 contests) along the Baylor sideline he's faced an opponent who ended the season in a bowl game.

The Bears' 2007 opponents combined for an 85-67 (.559) record a year ago and eight earned bowl bids — TCU (Poinsettia champion), Rice (New Orleans), Texas (Alamo champion), Kansas State (Texas), Texas A&M (Holiday), Texas Tech (Insight champion), Oklahoma (Fiesta) and Oklahoma State (Independence champion). Baylor's eight 2007 Big 12 foes went 60-43 (.583) a year ago and recorded all three of the league's bowl wins.

Six of Baylor's eight losses in 2006 came at the hands of eventual bowl-bound teams while it knocked off Texas Bowl participant Kansas State, 17-3, and bowl-eligible Kansas, 36-35.

Over Morris' four seasons in Waco, his teams have tackled the nation's 55th- (2003), sixth- (2004), 28th- (2005) and 49th- (2006) most-difficult schedules according to the NCAA.

ALL EYES ON QUARTERBACK BATTLE

A year ago, the focus on the offensive side of the ball was aimed at Baylor's new spread attack. This year, though, the attention will be directed at the five-man race to replace Shawn Bell as the Bears' starting quarterback. Bell, whose Baylor career was cut short when he went down with a season-ending knee injury late in the Texas A&M game, established virtually every school single-season and career passing record despite not playing more than nine games in any season. He missed the final three games of the 2006 season, but still set school single-season records for passing yards (2,582), attempts (383), completions (241), completion percentage (.629) and touchdowns (19) while directing the Bears to a 4-5 record and a school-record three Big 12 wins.

Fifth-year senior and Kent State transfer Michael Machen emerged from spring practice on top of the Bears' depth chart, but he'll have to fight off Tyler (Texas) Junior College transfer John David Weed, sophomore Blake Szymanski, redshirt freshman Tyler Beatty and junior walk-on Ryan Roberts, a transfer from Midwestern State, to start Baylor's Sept. 1 season-opener at TCU.

"JOE PAW" LOOKS TO BUILD ON OUTSTANDING ROOKIE SEASON

Sophomore linebacker Joe Pawelek enjoyed one of the finest seasons ever by a Baylor rookie, earning 2006 first-team freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and second-team recognition from Rivals.com. The Associated Press' 2006 Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year, Pawelek also garnered conference Defensive Freshman of the Year honors from The Sporting News, Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Houston Chronicle as well as second-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches.

He led the Bears in tackles with 86 stops (46 solos) while playing in every game with 10 starts. Pawelek tied for 10th in the Big 12 with 7.17 tackles per game, the highest per-game average of any conference freshman, and finished the season with 4.5 tackles for loss (No. 4 on squad), 2.0 sacks (T-No. 2 on team), one interception, four pass breakups (T-No. 2 on squad) and a team-high nine quarterback hurries.

FAMILY AFFAIR

The Bears' 2007 roster includes the sons of six former Baylor football standouts, three of whom were All-Americans during their Baylor careers. True freshmen Matt Singletary, V.J. McElroy and Chris Francis join three other sons of Baylor legacies already in the program--sophomore offensive guard Sam Sledge, redshirt freshman receiver Ben Randle and sophomore running back Tony Anderson, who must sit out the season as a transfer from I-AA Southeast Missouri State.

Singletary's father, Mike, was a three-time All-American and two-time Davey O'Brien Award winner who is enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame after standout playing careers at Baylor and with the NFL's Chicago Bears. McElroy's father, Vann, was a two-time All-America defensive back at Baylor who went on to play in two Pro Bowls with the NFL's Los Angeles Raiders. The younger Francis' father, James, earned 1989 All-America and Southwest Conference Player of the Year honors and was a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals.

David Sledge was an All-Southwest Conference performer for the Bears in 1978. Alfred Anderson, the third-leading rusher in school history, and Ervin Randle, an eight-year NFL veteran with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Kansas City Chiefs, were Baylor teammates in the early 1980s.

GETTING BETTER YARD BY YARD

Over the last four seasons Baylor has improved its national standing in 11 of the 14 major team statistical categories tracked by the NCAA. The categories in which the Bears ranked lower nationally in 2006 than they did in 2002, the year prior to Guy Morriss' arrival, were rushing offense, total defense and rushing defense.

Those improvements have obviously made the Bears more competitive. In 2002, Baylor lost five games by at least 40 points, but it has had just six such setbacks in four seasons under Morriss and three of those came in his first year.

Here's a look at Baylor's NCAA and Big 12 statistical rankings in the year prior to Morriss' arrival compared to its standing at the end of his fourth season along the Bears' sideline:

CATEGORY	2002	NCAA	2006	NCAA
Scoring Offense	16.8	115	23.6	59
Total Offense	334.9	95	315.2	86
Passing Offense	231.5	47	275.0	11

AFCA SALUTES BAYLOR FOR FOOTBALL GRADUATION RATE

Baylor was one of 34 NCAA Division I-A schools to have its football program honored with the 2007 Academic Achievement Award by the American Football Coaches Association.

In the most-recent AFCA survey, four institutions registered graduation rates of 90 percent or more for their 2001-02 freshman football class, including Northwestern and Notre Dame, which earned top honors from the Touchdown Club of Memphis with their 95 percent marks.

Baylor joined Big 12 schools Nebraska, Texas and Texas Tech among the 32 institutions who received honorable mention recognition with a graduation rate of 70 to 90 percent.

The Baylor football program was also recognized in the AFCA's 1996, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2006 surveys.

SEASON PREVIEW

BAYLOR TURNS OVER A NEW LEAF

Baylor ranked 113th nationally in turnover margin and forced just nine opponent miscues over the 11-game 2004 campaign, but the last two seasons it has reversed that trend. The Bears' defense has forced 56 turnovers (32 interceptions, 24 fumble recoveries) since the start of the 2005 season to rank second in the Big 12 and 13th nationally among Division I-A teams in that span. Baylor has come up with at least one turnover in 20 of 23 games since the start of the 2005 season, including 14 with two or more.

Baylor forced 34 turnovers over 23 games in Guy Morriss' first two seasons, compared to the 56 it has totaled over the last 23 outings. Here's a look at teams nationally with the most turnovers forced over the last two seasons:

TURNOVERS GAINED	2006	2005	TOTAL
1. TCU	26	40	66
2. Florida	29	31	60
Louisiana-Monroe	34	26	60
Louisiana Tech	29	31	60
Nevada	37	23	60
Southern Cal	22	38	60
7. Georgia	30	29	59

Oregon	22	32	54
Virginia Tech	27	27	54

BAYLOR HAS 20/20 VISION

In four seasons under head coach Guy Morriss, Baylor has established a bit of a vicenary rule on the scoreboard. The Bears are 13-11 when scoring at least 20 points and 2-20 when scoring less than 20 points since the start of the 2003 season. Likewise, the Bears are 9-3 when holding the opponent to fewer than 20 points and 6-28 when allowing 20 or more points in that time.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
HEADED TO CAMPUS IN 2008

Ground was broken May 10, 2007, on the Alwin O. and Dorothy Highers Athletics Complex and the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center, a $34 million complex that will integrate the Baylor athletics department and football program into the campus environment for the first time since the late 1950s.

The lead gift for the privately funded project and the largest single gift in school history is from the estate of Alwin O. Highers Jr. of Alexandria, La. A native Texan and a 1939 Baylor business graduate, Mr. Highers was well known as the owner of Alexandria's Dr Pepper Bottling Co. He also was a dedicated supporter of Baylor athletics and in particular its football program, until his death in 2003. He is survived by his wife, Dorothy, who still resides in Alexandria.

The focal point of the Highers Athletics Complex will be the 96,300-square-foot Simpson Athletics and Academic Center, which will be built on University Parks Drive adjacent to Baylor's Mayborn Museum Complex and the university's other athletic facilities that are part of the Julie and Jim Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex on the Brazos River.

A Baylor University graduate and generous Baylor supporter, Bob R. Simpson is a co-founder, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of XTO Energy Inc. of Fort Worth. His leadership at XTO has been recognized by numerous publications, including Barron's ("30 most respected CEO's in the world," March 27, 2006), Oil & Gas Explorer ("Executive of the Year," March 2006), Institutional Investor ("Best CEOs," January 2006), BusinessWeek ("The BusinessWeek Top 50 Performers," April 2006) and Forbes ("2,000 Leading Companies in the World," April 17, 2006).

Simpson earned a bachelor's degree in accounting and finance, with magna cum laude honors, in 1970 and his MBA in 1971.

The first floor of the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center will include functions that are currently housed at Floyd Casey Stadium, such as a main athletics training room, equipment room, football team locker room, coaches' locker room and weight room. Floor two will hold administrative offices, the football office and meeting rooms, as well as an academic center which will benefit all Baylor student-athletes.

The Highers Athletics Complex will include three football practice fields, two with a natural surface and the other with artificial turf. Construction will take approximately 18 months and is expected to be completed by July 2008.

WALK-ONS

Baylor's 2007 roster features four student-athletes who began their collegiate careers as walk-ons but have since earned a scholarship from head coach Guy Morriss and his staff. All-told, Morriss and his staff have rewarded 23 walk-ons with scholarships since 2003.

The most notable Baylor walk-on turned scholarship recipient was punter Daniel Sepulveda, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Sepulveda, having not punted since early in his high school career, became the Bears' punter as a redshirt freshman in 2003 and was placed on scholarship by Morriss after earning 2003 second-team All-Big 12 honors in January 2004. He went on to become the first player to win two Ray Guy Awards (2004 and 2006), given annually to the nation's top collegiate punter, and earn All-America honors in each of his final three seasons. Sepulveda, a two-time first-team Academic All-American, was a unanimous consensus All-America choice on the field in 2006 when he won his second Guy trophy.

Other walk-on Bears who have earned scholarships since Morriss' arrival in Waco include: Jordan Adams, Baylor Barbee, Bryan Bays, Lee Chandler, Joseph DeWoody, Damon Dotson, Bennett Hoefer, Michael Gary, Julian Hill, Quincy Jenkins, Tyler Lindstrom, Nick Moore, Mark Murphy, Craig Munn, Mario Price, Shaun Rochon, Chris Rogers, David Schieck, Marcus Venus, Kenny Webb, Jonathan Weeks and Thomas White.

NCAA COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

Baylor University is committed to absolute compliance with all NCAA and Big 12 Conference rules and regulations. Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental principle of NCAA legislation. It requires each institution to conduct its intercollegiate athletics programs in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA. This responsibility includes ensuring that coaches, staff, and other groups representing the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable rules.

As a result, it is important for prospects, fans, and alumni to have some understanding of the principles governing college athletics. Below are a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic boosters.

NCAA DEFINITIONS

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS (BOOSTER)

A "representative of athletics interests" (booster) is any individual or group that has ever:

- Been a member of an organization promoting Baylor athletics.
- Contributed to the Athletics Department or its booster organizations.
- Assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes.
- Provided benefits (e.g. employment) to prospective student-athletes, enrolled student-athletes or their family members.
- Otherwise promoted the Baylor athletics program.

Keep in mind that it is very easy to meet one or more of these criteria and once you become an athletics representative, you retain this status FOREVER!

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "prospect" is a high school student that has started classes for the ninth grade and also any junior college student. A student that has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospect if the student receives any benefits that the institution does not provide to all prospective students in general. An individual remains a prospect until he or she starts classes at Baylor or reports for practice, whichever occurs first.

STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "student-athlete" is a student whose enrollment was solicited by an athletics staff member with the expectation that the student will participate in intercollegiate athletics. A student not solicited by an athletics staff member becomes a student-athlete when he or she joins an intercollegiate team or reports for practice.

RECRUITING

"Recruiting" is any solicitation of a prospect or the prospect's family by an authorized institutional staff member for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment at Baylor and participation in athletics. Athletics representatives may not be involved in the recruitment of prospects except as outlined in the following section.

CONTACT

A "contact" is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletics representative during which any dialogue occurs.

GUIDELINES AND REMINDERS FOR BOOSTERS

- A booster may not contact a prospect, prospect's family, friends, coach or school administrator in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospect or the prospect's family or friends.
- A booster may not write, make phone calls, or otherwise communicate with a prospect or the prospect's family or friends for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may not contribute funds to a prospect's high school or club team as a form of recruiting inducement or if solicited to do so by a collegiate coach.
- A booster may attend a prospect's athletic events without contacting the prospect or his/her family.
- A booster may send recommendation letters and newspaper clippings about a prospect in their area to Baylor's coaches.
- A booster may continue a pre-existing relationship with a prospect and his/her family as long as the relationship pre-dated the prospect's recruitment or notoriety as an athlete and the nature of the relationship is not enhanced after their notoriety as an athlete. Such a relationship may not be for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may host a current student-athlete or an entire team in their home for a meal, but only on an occasional basis.
- A booster may provide a job for a student-athlete, but the job responsibilities must be legitimate and the pay commensurate for the task.

GUIDELINES FOR EXTRA BENEFITS

An "extra benefit" is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or athletics representative to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or his or her family with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit. Examples of extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Gifts of money, awards or other tangible items.
- Use of vehicles or payment of transportation costs incurred by prospect, prospect's relatives or friends.
- Free or reduced housing arrangements.
- Promise of employment after graduation or employment of prospect's relatives or friends.
- Special discounts or payment arrangements.

RECRUITING

GUIDELINES FOR PROSPECTS

LETTERS AND NOTES

Coaches may begin to write notes and letters to prospects beginning September 1 of their junior year in high school (September 15 after sophomore year for men's basketball prospects).

PHONE CALLS

- Prospect Calling: A coach may receive a call initiated by a prospect and paid for by the prospect at any time, including the prospect's freshman or sophomore years. Prospects may call coaches collect or by dialing 800-BAYLOR only after July 1 after their junior year.
- Football: Coaches may call a prospect once in May of their junior year and then begin making regular phone calls September 1 after their junior year. At some times of the year, calls are limited to once per week while at others calls are unlimited.
- Men's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once on or after June 15 of his sophomore year until July 31 of his junior year, then two calls beginning August 1 before senior year in high school.
- Women's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once in April and once in May of her junior year. Then they may make one call from June 1-20 after junior year and one call June 21-30 of junior year, three calls to a prospect during July following her junior year, and thereafter no more than one call per week.
- Other Sports: Coaches may call a prospect once in March of their junior year, then once per week beginning July 1 after their junior year.

UNOFFICIAL VISITS

There are no limits on the number of unofficial (unpaid) visits to Baylor a prospect may make and no age restriction on who may make unofficial visits. At each unofficial visit, a prospect may receive three (3) complimentary admissions to a home athletic event. No other expenses may be paid by Baylor. At certain times of the year, unofficial visits are prohibited so please coordinate your visit with the coaching staff.

OFFICIAL VISITS

A prospect may only make a total of five official (paid) visits and only one official visit to Baylor. A prospect may not make an official visit until the first day of classes of their senior year (January 1 of junior year for men's basketball prospects). All official visits will be coordinated by the coaching staffs.

BAYLOR

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

TEXAS' OLDEST
UNIVERSITY IN CONTINUOUS OPERATION

Baylor, a private Christian university and a nationally ranked liberal arts institution, is the kind of place where the future head of a Fortune 500 company sits alongside those who will found a missionary school in Africa or become a governor of Texas, a professional athlete or a cardiac surgeon overseeing one of the most prestigious medical centers. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies Baylor as a research university with "high research activity." This blends with Baylor's international reputation for educational excellence built upon the faculty's commitment to teaching, scholarship and interdisciplinary research to produce outstanding graduates.

WHO WE ARE

Chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas through the efforts of Baptist pioneers, Baylor is the state's oldest continually operating university. While 80 percent of the student body comes from Texas, the 735-acre campus in Waco welcomes students from all 50 states and 70 countries.

THE VISION

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming its distinctive Christian mission. Substantial progress has been made on several key initiatives. We have increased scholarship funds, lowered the student-faculty ratio, added a 600-person residential village and begun construction on a 700-person residential village on campus, and built a state-of-the-art $100 million sciences building and a new museum studies complex.

DID YOU KNOW?

TOP 15%

Baylor ranks in the top 15 percent of colleges and universities participating in the National Merit Scholars program.

SIC'EM

Baylor has won 25 Big 12 championships in seven sports since 1998. In 81 years of membership in the Southwest Conference, Baylor won 28 titles.

LEGALLY SPEAKING

Baylor law students had a 100 percent passing rate on the February 2007 Texas State Bar Exam, 21 percent higher than the state average.

THE DATA IS IN

Baylor students report themselves significantly more satisfied with almost every aspect of their undergraduate experience (approximately 90 percent of the items measured) than students at other private institutions.

The best way to learn about Baylor and all that it has to offer is through a personal visit. Call 254.710.2407 to schedule a campus tour.

2006-2007 HIGHLIGHTS

OCT. 7, 2006 — BOULDER, COLO. FOOTBALL

Joe Pawelek's leaping interception in the end zone in the third overtime clinched Baylor's 34-31 victory at Colorado. The Bears scored on fourth-and-goal to force the third overtime and then kicked a field goal in their possession in the third extra period. Ryan Havens' 22-yarder proved to be the difference in the game.

OCT. 21, 2006 — FLOYD CASEY STADIUM FOOTBALL

Baylor scored 19 unanswered points in the game's final nine minutes, 22 seconds, for an improbable 36-35 victory over Kansas on Homecoming. The Bears erased an 18-point deficit for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in program history. Shawn Bell, who established school records for passing yards and passing touchdowns, connected with Dominique Zeigler for a 10-yard, game-winning touchdown pass with 68 seconds remaining.

OCT. 27, 2006 — FERRELL CENTER VOLLEYBALL

Taylor Barnes had a triple-double and was one of five Baylor players with at least 10 kills as the Bears rallied from a two-game deficit to defeat 16th-ranked Missouri in five games. After dropping game one 30-26 and being edged 33-31 in game two, Baylor stormed back for wins of 30-22, 30-23 and 15-10 to take the match.

NOV. 20, 2006 — TERRE HAUTE, IND. WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

Nicole Jones paced Baylor with a 66th-place individual finish as the Bears finished 29th in the team standings at the NCAA National Championship. It marked the fourth consecutive year in which Baylor placed in the top 30 at the national meet.

NOV. 21, 2006 — FERRELL CENTER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Baylor quickly erased a halftime deficit and never trailed again, en route to a 64-60 victory over ninth-ranked Louisiana State. Bernice Mosby tallied 21 points and 17 rebounds to lead the Lady Bears to the victory in front of 7,503 fans. LSU pulled to within one point at the 1:45 mark, but Baylor held the Tigers without a field goal the rest of the way.

DEC. 7, 2006 — LAKE BUENA VISTA, FLA. FOOTBALL

Daniel Sepulveda became the first two-time winner of the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter. Sepulveda, who also won the award in 2004, joined Mike Singletary as the only Baylor players and one of only 13 players in NCAA Division I history to earn a major national award twice. Sepulveda went on to earn consensus first-team All-America and first-team Academic All-America honors; he also was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

FEB. 18, 2007 — FERRELL CENTER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Four Lady Bears scored in double figures, including Latara Darrett's 17-point effort off the bench, as Baylor routed Texas 71-56 in front of 8,360 fans. It marked Baylor's third straight win over Texas and the Lady Bears' fourth in the last five meetings.

MARCH 3, 2007 — FERRELL CENTER MEN'S BASKETBALL

Curtis Jerrells scored 21 points, and Henry Dugat added 20 points, as Baylor closed out the regular season with an 86-82 victory over Oklahoma State. The victory gave the Bears a 13-5 record at home, including a 4-4 mark at the Ferrell Center in Big 12 Conference play.

MARCH 8, 2007 — OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. MEN'S BASKETBALL

Eleventh-seeded Baylor shot 63 percent from the field and hit nine of 15 shots from behind the 3-point line to rout sixth-seeded Missouri 97-83 in the first round of the Big 12 Championship. It was Baylor's first win at the event since reaching the 2001 semifinals. Curtis Jerrells and Henry Dugat led the offensive explosion with 31 and 25 points, respectively.

MARCH 10, 2007 — FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. TRACK & FIELD

Baylor's men's 4x400-meter relay team clocked the world's fastest time of the year to date for its seventh indoor national championship. It was Baylor's first title in the event since 2004. The men's team finished tied for 10th at the NCAA Championship, while the women's team tied for 50th.

APRIL 20, 2007 — HEART O' TEXAS FAIR COMPLEX EQUESTRIAN

Baylor's western team upset two nationally ranked opponents en route to a fifth-place finish at the Varsity National Equestrian Championships, hosted by Baylor. The English riders finished eighth, giving Baylor an eighth-place national team finish.

MAY 5, 2007 — GETTERMAN STADIUM SOFTBALL

Chelsi Lake scored on a passed ball in the bottom of the 10th to give Baylor a 5-4 victory over sixth-ranked Texas A&M. More importantly, the win gave the Lady Bears their first-ever Big 12 Conference title. The game, played in front of a school-record 1,455 fans, was one of the greatest in program history as Baylor tied the game in both the seventh and ninth innings before pulling out the dramatic victory in the 10th.

MAY 12, 2007 — ANN ARBOR, MICH. WOMEN'S GOLF

Baylor carded a third-round 315 to place 14th at the NCAA Central Regional. It marked the eighth consecutive season in which Baylor's women's golf team participated in NCAA postseason play.

MAY 13, 2007 — BAYLOR TENNIS CENTER WOMEN'S TENNIS

In a match that featured more than two hours of weather delays, Baylor defeated Texas A&M 4-1 in the regional championship match to advance to the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in school history and third straight season. Klara Zrustova clinched the match for the Bears with a 6-2, 6-3 victory at No. 6 singles.

MAY 18, 2007 — BAYLOR BALLPARK BASEBALL

Despite giving up six first-inning runs, Baylor rallied to defeat Kansas State 9-8 in the first game of the season-ending three-game series. Beamer Weems' two-out RBI single in the eighth proved to be the game winner. The Bears went on to sweep the Wildcats, starting a key six-game winning streak.

MAY 19, 2007 — ATHENS, GA. MEN'S TENNIS

Baylor blanked North Carolina State 4-0 in the national quarterfinals at the NCAA Team Championship. The victory propelled the Bears to the national semifinals for the fourth consecutive season. After the Bears claimed the doubles point in just 47 minutes, Michal Kokta, Dominik Mueller and Denes Lukacs won singles points to give Baylor the match.

MAY 19, 2007 — SUGAR GROVE, ILL. MEN'S GOLF

Baylor shot a 317 in the third round to place 18th at the NCAA Central Regional. It marked the 10th consecutive season in which Baylor's men's golf team participated in NCAA postseason play.

MAY 26, 2007 — GETTERMAN STADIUM SOFTBALL

After falling to 10th-ranked Michigan 3-0 earlier in the day, Baylor rebounded for a 4-0 victory in the third and deciding game of the NCAA Waco Super Regional to clinch the program's first-ever trip to the Women's College World Series. Kirsten Shortridge got the game started on the right foot for Baylor, lacing a two-run homer in the first. The Lady Bears added two runs in the second, and Lisa Ferguson tossed a five-hit shutout for the win.

MAY 26, 2007 — OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. BASEBALL

Kendal Volz established a Big 12 Championship record with 13 strikeouts as Baylor defeated Oklahoma 7-6 to reach the title game for the fifth time since 1999. The victory proved to be the deciding factor in Baylor reaching NCAA Tournament play for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons, one of only 15 Division I programs with that on its resumé.

JUNE 9, 2007 — SACRAMENTO, CALIF. TRACK & FIELD

Reggie Witherspoon, LeJerald Betters, Kevin Mutai and Quentin Iglehart-Summers posted a school-record time of 3:00.04 to win the 4x400-meter relay national title at the NCAA Outdoor Championship. It was the fourth-fastest time in NCAA history and less than one-half second off the all-time record. It was Baylor's ninth title in the outdoor event. The Bears finished 15th nationally in the team standings.

BAYLOR SOFTBALL — 2007 BIG 12 CHAMPIONS

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

The 2007 season marks Baylor's 58th playing at 50,000-seat Floyd Casey Stadium.

The Bears saw a stadium season record 259,559 fans go through the turnstiles for seven 2006 home games, including a single-game record crowd of 51,385 for Baylor's Oct. 28 game against No. 22 Texas A&M. Those marks broke records of 240,367 (for six games in 1991) and 51,218 (1995 vs. Texas A&M), respectively.

Since Guy Morriss' arrival in Waco, attendance at Baylor home football games has increased by nearly 25 percent, from 28,018 the year prior to his arrival in 2002 to the 37,080 the program averaged in 2006.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a football stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the new stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent.

After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey. The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

Numerous enhancements continue to be made to the Bears' den.

A new recruiting center, located on the stadium's northwest patio, opened in 2006, and a tribute to Baylor football, designed to enhance the Grant Teaff Plaza, which includes the Letterwinners Plaza and the "I Believe" Walkway, was unveiled.

The plaza, first opened in 2002, originally was located at the base of the press box on the west side of the stadium. The plaza has since been expanded to wrap completely around the stadium. The plaza's centerpiece is a statue honoring former Baylor head coach and College Football Hall of Fame member Grant Teaff, the program's winningest coach who led Baylor to two Southwest Conference titles.

Baylor unveiled a new synthetic turf playing surface, the Prestige System, in 2004 after six seasons of play on the natural SportGrass turf. From 1972 through 1997 Floyd Casey stadium featured an AstroTurf playing surface.

In 2002, Baylor added a 23-by-31-foot LED video screen in the south end zone. The project included the addition of a state-of-the-art sound system and new digital scoreboards in both end zones.

Baylor's locker room received a face lift in 2001, when the $2 million facility, the Big 12's largest, was completed.

A state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox was built on the stadium's west side in 1999. One year prior, the team meeting room area also underwent a complete remodeling.

The Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Center, which houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio and meeting facilities, opened in 1991.

In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher seats was completed in 1981.

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received facelifts in both 1995 and 2006.

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were used by the Bears. Baylor's first football squad took the field in 1899, but no records are available to prove where it played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility.

An unknown number of games were played at the old Cotton Palace during this period, too.

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35.

The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where Baylor played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

BAYLOR

TRADITION

THE BEAR NICKNAME AND MASCOT

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and Doyle Thraillkill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylorism."

Although Baylor adopted "Bears" as its official nickname in 1914, it was not until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University.

The first live bear was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Waco's Camp MacArthur during World War I.

The bear, named Ted, made his first appearance at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the unit received its orders to move on, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department. Since then, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become as much a fixture as the players, cheerleaders and bands.

A series of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College, who came to Baylor through the work of Bill Boyd, then a Baylor student. Boyd bought the bear from a zoo that went broke at the Cotton Palace in Waco. He then approached Baylor's president, Pat Neff, and offered to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the deal and the tradition of live bears as mascots has continued since.

In 1974, the student body voted to name all the bears "Judge" followed by a surname in honor of the university's namesake, Judge R.E.B. Baylor. Baylor's current mascots are "Joy," named in honor of the wife of the late President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Lady" named after Sue Sloan, wife of then-President Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr.

The bears attend several Baylor athletic events, schools, community centers, churches, and any other educational outreach.

The bears may also be seen at the Bill and Eva Williams Bear Habitat located in the center of the Baylor campus. The new home of the bears was dedicated during Homecoming 2005 and is classified as a Class 'C' Exhibitor Zoo. It is licensed to hold up to three North American Black Bears and is regulated and licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"SIC 'EM BEARS" AND THE BEAR CLAW

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal — made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw — and the "Sic 'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

In addition to being used during the yell, the "Bear Claw" is held up during the performance of Baylor's school song, "That Good Old Baylor Line." Football players traditionally hold up their helmets during the playing of the school song.

THE BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

*That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:

GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-SMU football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas. During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Barry Kraus, marches approximately 260 members.

THE IMMORTAL TEN

Baylor has many traditions and a rich history as a university that has been in existence for over 150 years. One of the events that has had a lasting impact on the University and its athletic department is the story of the Immortal Ten.

On January 22, 1927, coach Ralph Wolf was taking his first Baylor basketball team to play a game at Texas. This was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship. The trip was not a pleasant one, as rain had poured over Central Texas for the majority of the day and continued as the team departed for Austin. That hampered the vision of the chartered bus driver as debris from the road sprayed the windshield of the bus.

At Round Rock, Texas, just miles from the team's arrival in Austin, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. A speeding train from the I&GA Railroad Company rammed into the side of the bus at a railway crossing near the center of the city. Ten of the 21 players, coaches and fans of the Baylor party that traveled on the bus that day were killed.

Baylor remembers the story each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. An on-campus statue honoring the Immortal Ten will be dedicated in the fall of 2007.

There was a hero of the accident, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Kelly, captain-elect of the 1927 football team, saw the train just before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washman, out of the bus' window. Kelly is credited with saving the life of his best friend at the greatest expense to himself. Kelly was one of the 10 who died in the collision.

Others who did not survive the wreck were William Winchester, W.E. Murray, Merle Dudley, Sam Dillow, Jack Castellaw, L.R. "Ivey" Foster, Bob Hailey, R.L. Hannah and James Walker.

Wesley Bradshaw, who is still in the top 10 on the Baylor football career scoring list, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C.S. Bean, Keifer Strickland (an All-SWC selection), John Kane, Dave Cheavers (former Baylor journalism department chair) and coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washman and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of the tragedy, the remainder of the 1927 season was canceled, and the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed in Round Rock.

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men — Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane — won the award for their World War II service.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the National Football League's New York Giants.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and survived the 1927 bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania, in 1943. Kane died in 1987.

CHRISTIAN ATMOSPHERE

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty — a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor You youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

THE HOMECOMING TRADITION

Baylor is believed to be among the first five schools nationally ever to celebrate homecoming along with Illinois, Northern Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Baylor held its first homecoming in 1909 and responded with a 6-3 win over TCU on Thanksgiving Day, then took a six-year hiatus before celebrating its second in 1915 with 51-0 victory over TCU.

Usually celebrated over Thanksgiving weekend, early Homecomings were held sporadically until they became an annual event in 1930 when the name was changed from "Good Will Week" to Homecoming and brought under the Baylor Chamber's direction.

One tradition which remains from 1909 is the Homecoming parade, which featured well over 130 entries, with both 60 automobiles and carriages, plus student organizations on foot in its first year. As it is today, the parade was led by law enforcement and the Baylor marching band.

FRANK FALLON

Radio waves throughout the Baylor family fell silent the evening of April 30, 2004, upon the passing of the legendary Frank Fallon.

Best known as the former "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Fallon's face and voice were synonymous with Baylor athletics.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. He began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18.

Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, Fallon joined Waco's KWTX and enjoyed a 28-year association with the station.

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer and "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," as well as doing television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN.

A broadcast journalism professor at Baylor in his latter years, Fallon received many prestigious awards during his career. In August 2001, he was presented the Chris Schenkel Award, honoring lifetime excellence and community contributions. Fallon was the recipient of the 2001 Baylor Communications Award.

He was honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times.

Fallon is a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He also was voted one of the top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sportswriters Association and in 2005 was inducted into the Texas Hall of Fame's inaugural sports media class.

In Fallon's honor, Waco's Chamber of Commerce annually sponsors the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award.

FRANK FALLON

DAVE CAMPBELL

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the nation's prototype regional sports publications. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.

Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

However, retirement did not last long; Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider, a Baylor Bear Foundation publication devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past FWAA president, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given Baylor's Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club. Campbell was inducted into the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004 and was one of eight members of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural sports media class honored in 2005.

In August 1999, then-Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rapoport, longtime friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyed Casey Stadium.

Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 54 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. David (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

DEFENSIVE BACK GREATS

Highlighted by 1986 Jim Thorpe winner Thomas Everett, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006, Baylor defensive backs have been a staple in the NFL Draft.

GRANT TEAFF

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop from the Division I ranks. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl — Teaff's last game as the Bears' head coach — he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games.

The six-time SWC Coach of the Year and one-time National Coach of the Year coached 16 first-team All-Americans and 83 all-conference players.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC league wins, third-ranked coach for games as an SWC head coach, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for overall victories by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

He coached 12 postseason all-star games and the other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure in Waco. He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Majors and Hayden Fry to name just a few.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And the organization's driving force is Coach Teaff.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 21-year stint as the Bears' head coach. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

MIKE SINGLETARY (LEFT) AND WALTER ABERCROMBIE

MIKE SINGLETARY

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late 1970s and early 1980s. He still holds school records for career tackles with 662 (second place is 370), single-season tackles with 232 (the next closest is 144) and single-game tackles (33). Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 29 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for him to wear.

Singletary earned All-SWC honors four times. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Twice he won the Davey O'Brien Award as the Southwest's best football player. He was named All-America three years and consensus All-America twice. Named to Baylor's All-Decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s, he was Baylor's Defensive Player of the 1980s and was named to its All-Half Century Football Team.

A 1990 Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, Singletary was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 1994. One year later, he was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95.

In 1996, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and was selected to 10 Pro Bowls and honored as an All-Pro an amazing nine times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the Defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

The NCAA selected Singletary as one of its six 2005 Silver Anniversary Award winners. The award recognizes former student-athletes who completed successful collegiate careers in various sports 25 years ago and went on to excel in their chosen professions.

Singletary currently is the assistant head coach and linebackers coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Dr. John M.
LILLEY*University President
Baylor, 1961

Dr. John M. Lilley was unanimously elected the 13th president of Baylor University by the Board of Regents on Nov. 4, 2005, and assumed his alma mater's presidency on Jan. 1, 2006.

A native of Louisiana and the son of a Baptist minister, Dr. Lilley earned three music degrees from Baylor: a bachelor of music education degree in 1961, a bachelor of music degree in 1962 and a master of music degree in 1964. He went on to earn his doctorate in music from the University of Southern California in 1971. His scholarship focused on musical works from the Baroque and modern eras.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Dr. Lilley served for more than four years as the 14th president of the University of Nevada, Reno. He led the major research and land-grant institution through a comprehensive strategic planning process that incorporated the best ideas of faculty, staff, students and friends. He presided over an expansion of the institution's external funding, created new research centers and institutes to further its scientific outreach, and strengthened the leadership team to create a more responsive, more nimble team that focused on the academic mission of the university.

Before assuming the presidency at Nevada, Reno, Dr. Lilley was the head of Penn State Erie. Over a 21-year period, he led the four-year and graduate campus of The Pennsylvania State University through a period of dramatic growth.

During his tenure, enrollment doubled, admissions standards rose, and the college's physical campus grew from 400 to 750 acres. Under his leadership, the institution created four-year and/or graduate programs in science, engineering, and business, all of which earned accreditation from top accrediting agencies. He presided over creation of an honors program, secured a $20 million private endowment for the School of Business, and helped to found the Allegheny Mountain College Conference for athletics. Penn State Erie's athletics program grew from nine intercollegiate sports to 21 teams that were in full compliance with Title IX. He also led in the creation of 13 research centers for economic development and a 200-acre research park on campus.

In July 2002, Penn State's trustees voted to name the Erie campus' new library in Dr. Lilley's honor. At the same time, he received Penn State Erie's top honor, the Behrend Medallion, for outstanding service to Penn State and the Erie community.

Dr. Lilley began his academic career as a faculty member at The Claremont Colleges in California. In 1976, he was named assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Kansas State University, where he chaired the college's curricular affairs committee, led a reform of the college's general education requirements, and supervised the student advising program.

A great believer in community service and engagement, Dr. Lilley has served on the boards of the Economic Development Authority of Western Nevada, the Reno Philharmonic, and the Education Collaborative.

While at Penn State, he served as president of the Rotary Club and chair of the United Way board. His other board memberships included the Erie Philharmonic; WQLN, Northwest Pennsylvania's public radio and TV stations; the Americans for the Competitive Enterprise System; the Northwestern Pennsylvania Industrial Resource Council; and the Erie Plastics Corp. He also was a corporator of Hamot Health Systems Inc. and the Saint Vincent Health Center.

Professionally, he has served on the board of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

While a student at Baylor and USC, Dr. Lilley, a licensed Baptist minister, served as minister of music at four Baptist churches. He and his wife, Geraldine (Gerrie), have four grown children and three grandchildren. Dr. and Mrs. Lilley are members of First Baptist Church, Waco.

Michael
ROGERS*Faculty Representative
Texas Tech, 1972

Professor Michael Rogers has served as Baylor's Faculty Representative to the Big 12 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association since 2002 and has been a member of the Baylor Law faculty since 1984.

Rogers earned a bachelor of business administration degree and graduated with honors in 1972 from Texas Tech University, where he was a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies and a varsity scholarship basketball player. He received his J.D. degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1974, where he was an editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and was admitted to membership in the Order of the Coif.

Rogers was in private practice from 1975 to 1984, during which time he was a founding partner of Gaar & Bell (now Gilmore & Bell), a securities transactions law firm with offices in Kansas and Missouri. He is admitted to practice law in Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas.

During his private practice work, Rogers served as lead counsel in dozens of private securities transactions and over 100 public offerings of tax-advantaged securities. While teaching Securities Regulation at Baylor, he has served as consulting counsel in numerous securities lawsuits.

In 1984 he joined the Baylor Law faculty, where his subjects include family law, securities regulation and alternative dispute resolution. Rogers is an experienced mediator and serves on the panel of mediators for the United States District Court Western District of Texas. He continues to serve as a director (Board Chairman, 2000-2001) of the McLennan County Dispute Resolution Center and on the panel of mediators for the United States District Court, Western District of Texas. Rogers formerly served on the panel of arbitrators for the American Arbitration Association.

For more than a decade, Professor Rogers has served as chair of Baylor's Professional Sports Counseling Panel. In that capacity, he has rendered advice to numerous future professional athletes, including Olympic gold medalist Michael Johnson and Super Bowl champion Santana Dotson.

Rogers is the son of the late Bob J. Rogers, who served as head basketball coach at Texas A&M University from 1957 to 1963.

PRESIDENT LILLEY

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Ian
McCaw*Director of Athletics
Laurentian, 1985

Ian McCaw was named Director of Athletics of Baylor's 18-sport, Big 12 intercollegiate athletics program Sept. 8, 2003. Under McCaw's leadership, the department has achieved unprecedented academic, athletics and administrative success.

Since 2003, Baylor has enjoyed its most competitively successful period in the history of its intercollegiate athletics program. During that time, Baylor has captured two NCAA national championships, 16 Big 12 conference championships and recorded its three highest finishes in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings.

In 2006-07, Baylor had a school-record tying 13 teams advance to postseason competition and won five Big 12 championships. Softball reached the Women's College World Series and captured the Big 12 regular-season title for the first time, men's track won national indoor and outdoor titles in the 4x400-meter relay, and men's and women's tennis captured Big 12 regular season and tournament championships. Baylor finished 38th in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings.

In 2005-06, a school-record 13 teams advanced to postseason competition while eight teams finished the year ranked in the Top 20 nationally. Men's and women's tennis both captured Big 12 regular season championships with the women adding a tournament title. Baylor recorded its second-highest finish ever in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings ranking 32nd nationally and fifth in the Big 12.

Baylor had its most successful year ever in 2004-05 which included winning the national championship in women's basketball, being national runner-up in men's tennis and finishing third in baseball at the College World Series. Baylor eclipsed the previous school record of two conference championships in one year by winning Big 12 regular season championships in baseball, women's basketball, men's tennis and women's tennis. BU added Big 12 tournament titles in women's basketball and men's tennis.

Baylor finished third in the Big 12 and 25th in the nation in the 2005 NACDA Directors' Cup, its highest ranking ever. At the same time, Baylor student-athletes led the Big 12 with a NCAA graduate rate of 78 percent, eight points higher than the school's general student population.

In 2003-04, Baylor had a highly successful year that included winning the first NCAA team championship in school history in men's tennis along with five NCAA individual titles.

While Baylor athletics enjoyed extraordinary academic and athletics success, the department has made dramatic strides administratively, too.

A five-year strategic plan for intercollegiate athletics, Above and Beyond, was developed and implemented inclusive of department goals and objectives. An outgrowth of this plan was the creation of the five-year, $90 million development campaign Victory with Integrity which was initiated in February 2005.

Improved athletics development success has followed, leading to the funding and construction of the Grant Teaff and Letterwinners Plazas at Floyd Casey Stadium; the Lt. Jack Whetsel Jr. Basketball Practice Facility; the Willis Family Equestrian Center; and the Highers Athletics Complex and the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center. The athletics endowment has grown to more than $22 million while the Baylor Bear Foundation has set new annual fund records in three consecutive years.

Baylor successfully completed the NCAA certification process being cited as one of only two institutions in the certification program's history to have no issues raised in its self-study. An expanded compliance staff, improved financial services area and enhanced Student Athlete Services/Life Skills unit are among the most significant internal improvements.

Record revenues in ticket sales, corporate sponsorship, television, licensing and expanded media exposure underscore the growth in external support for Baylor Athletics.

McCaw is Baylor's 12th athletic director and arrived from the University of Massachusetts, where he spent the previous year as director of athletics. McCaw was responsible for a 23-sport program and helped develop and implement a five-year strategic plan for UMass athletics, along with overseeing a $2 million facility renovation.

McCaw previously served as director of intercollegiate athletics and campus recreation at Northeastern University from 1997-2002. He implemented a five-year strategic plan for Northeastern athletics inclusive of department goals and objectives.

A $4 million renovation of Northeastern's Cabot Center, which included a refurbishment of the main gymnasium, an expanded speed, strength and conditioning center, a new sports medicine center, expanded and renovated locker rooms, was also completed under his direction. Northeastern graduated 65 percent of its student-athletes during McCaw's final year at the Boston institution, 14 points higher than the institutional average. Husky student-athletes also gave back to the community, as each team was required to participate in at least one community service project annually. The success of the Northeastern athletics program on McCaw's watch extended beyond the classroom, as the program captured a school-record six America East conference titles in 2001-2002, and five teams finished among the nation's top 20.

McCaw went to Northeastern from Tulane University, where he served as senior associate athletic director for development and associate athletic director for external affairs from 1992-1997, being named Tulane's co-interim director of athletics in 1996. Prior to his years at Tulane, McCaw worked in a variety of athletic administrative posts at the University of Maine from 1986 to 1992 including sports information, marketing and external affairs.

Recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics, McCaw serves on the NCAA Championships Cabinet and its nominating committee. He is the chair of the Big 12 championship and awards committee; a member of the television, and game management and officiating committees. He also serves on NACDA's Executive Committee.

McCaw earned his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1987, after receiving a bachelor's degree in sports administration at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, in 1985. McCaw and his wife, Heather, are members of First Baptist Church of Woodway where he serves as a deacon. They are the parents of four children: Christy, Paul, Callie and Corinne. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Waco's Live Oak Classical School.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference has been synonymous with success in competitive play and in the classroom as it enters its 12th season, and league members anticipate continued success during the 2007-08 academic year.

In the first 11 years of the Big 12, the conference can boast of 30 team and over 350 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued this past season, with team titles in men's cross country (Colorado) and women's volleyball (Nebraska) in addition to numerous individual crowns.

Over the past three seasons alone a total of 11 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in 10 of 11 years for the conference, including each of the past 10 seasons.

Through the first nine Bowl Championship Series title games, the Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the contest. Big 12 squads have played for the football national championship five times in the last eight years, with berths in 12 BCS games overall.

In basketball, eight men's and women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past six seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. Numerous national honors have been won by men's and women's student-athletes during conference history, with Kevin Durant (Texas) the most recent to garner accolades as the consensus 2007 National Player of the Year.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community Big 12 student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. This past season, two league standouts were named the Academic All-America of the Year in their sport by ESPN The Magazine and the College Sports Information Directors of America. Nebraska's Sarah Pavan (volleyball) boasted a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry, while Aaron Ivey of Oklahoma (baseball) also has a 4.0 GPA in Energy Management.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 177 scholars have received more than $1 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 10 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The Big 12's geographic footprint encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In its 11-year history, the conference has distributed $913.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

GAME RECAPS

No. 22 TCU 17, BAYLOR 7
SEPT. 3 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 42,733

TCU scored 17 unanswered second-half points to erase a 7-0 halftime deficit and rally past Baylor in the season opener for both teams. It was the first football meeting between the two former Southwest Conference schools since 1995, the league's final season.

Marcus Jackson's 84-yard TD pass to Aaron Brown with 1:17 remaining in the third quarter gave TCU a 10-7 lead, its first of the game. The Frogs pushed their lead to 17-7 when Jackson connected with Quinton Cunigan from three yards out at the 9:32 mark in the fourth.

Jackson, who spelled senior starter Jeff Ballard at the start of the third quarter, finished 11-of-13 for 148 yards and two TDs. Ballard, who was 7-of-14 for 85 yards and one interception, did not play in the second half after taking a solid hit from Geoff Nelson late in the second quarter.

Baylor grabbed the momentum three plays into the second quarter when C.J. Wilson picked off Ballard's third-and-seven pass and returned it 46 yards to the TCU 20. Four plays later, the Bears grabbed the game's first lead when Shawn Bell hit Mikail Baker in the front right corner of the end zone for a 21-yard TD.

The Bears' next drive was thwarted when a third-and-five conversion to the TCU 12 was called back for holding. The next play resulted in an eight-yard loss, and Baylor was forced to punt.

That was a sign of things to come for the Bears, who twice in the third quarter committed turnovers inside the TCU 20.

TCU quelled Baylor's momentum on the opening kickoff of the second half as Donald Massey raced 69 yards down the right sideline to the Baylor 27. However, the Bears' defense forced the Frogs to settle for a Chris Manfredini 27-yard field goal.

Bell finished 31-of-47 for 286 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He established a Baylor record for completions in a regulation game, breaking a 40-year-old mark and one shy of his overall school record of 32 established in the 2004 double-overtime game against Texas A&M.

Terrance Parks led Baylor receivers with seven catches for 65 yards. Trent Shelton snagged five passes, tying Baylor's all-time record for consecutive games with at least one catch at 34.

BAYLOR 47, NORTHWESTERN STATE 10
SEPT. 9 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 31,125

In a game marred by penalties, Shawn Bell established a career high with 288 yards passing and tied a school record with four TD passes in a 47-10 Baylor victory.

The game saw 31 total penalties, five shy of the NCAA record. Northwestern State was flagged 20 times, one less than its school record and three away from the NCAA record. It was the most penalties ever incurred by a Baylor opponent.

Bell connected on 24-of-41 passes, including nine passes for 158 yards and one touchdown to Trent Shelton. It was the first 100-yard game for Shelton, who recorded his 35th consecutive game with at least one catch. That broke Reggie Newhouse's Baylor record, established over the 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons.

Meanwhile, C.J. Wilson snagged a pair of first-quarter interceptions, the second of which he returned 52 yards for a TD. One play after Wilson's first pick, Bell connected with Shelton for a 46-yard scoring strike.

Baylor added a pair of Ryan Havens field goals in the second quarter to take a 20-0 halftime lead. Northwestern State scored 10 third-quarter points, but Bell answered with the first of two TD passes to Trey Payne.

The Bears salted the game away with three TD passes in the fourth quarter; the last was Thomas White's second TD catch of the game and Blake Szymanski's first career TD pass.

Bell connected with nine different receivers. Mario Price, who earned his first career start at tailback, caught five passes for 34 yards. Bell became the first Baylor quarterback to toss four TD passes in a non-overtime game since 1966 when Terry Southall accomplished the feat against Syracuse.

WASHINGTON STATE 17, BAYLOR 15
SEPT. 16 • QWEST FIELD • SEATTLE, WASH. • 41,358

Loren Langley's 17-yard field goal with nine seconds remaining capped a 14-play, 81-yard drive as Washington State defeated Baylor 17-15 at Seattle.

Baylor trailed 14-9 with less than six minutes to play when the Bears' defense silenced the crowd at Qwest Field. Nick Moore forced a fumble, which Anthony Arline picked up and returned 40 yards for a touchdown. That gave Baylor a 15-14 lead with 5:24 remaining in the game, but the Bears failed on a crucial two-point conversion attempt.

Washington State then converted on two third downs in the game-winning drive. Baylor kept the Cougars out of the end zone, denying WSU on three rushes from the 1. The Cougars fumbled on the first rush, but Washington State recovered.

That set the stage for Langley's game-winning field goal.

Baylor built a 9-0 lead through the first quarter. The Bears got a safety when Washington State's first drive of the game ended with an errant snap on a punt that went through the back of the end zone. It was Baylor's first 2-0 lead since 1980 at Texas Tech.

On the ensuing drive, Baylor marched 59 yards on seven plays for a touchdown. Shawn Bell capped the drive with a 12-yard TD pass to Justin Fenty. It was Fenty's first career reception, and it came on his third career play from scrimmage.

Washington State got on the board with 4:25 remaining in the second quarter when Gary Rogers connected with Jason Hill from 13 yards out. It was the first first-half score allowed by Baylor in the 2006 season.

The Cougars captured the lead on their second possession of the third quarter on a 10-play, 82-yard drive. WSU used a trick play to take the lead as Dwight Tardy connected with quarterback Alex Brink on a halfback pass from 4 yards out.

Bell finished the day with 256 yards on 31-of-48 passing; however, he was intercepted twice for the first time in five games and only the fourth time in his career.

Bell's favorite target was Brandon Whitaker, who established career highs with nine catches for 57 yards. Whitaker had the most receptions by a Baylor running back since 1987 and was one shy of the Baylor record.

GAME RECAPS

ARMY 27, BAYLOR 20 OT
SEPT. 23 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 36,218

Tony Moore converted a crucial fourth down in overtime and later scored on a 4-yard run to give Army a 27-20 victory over Baylor.

Army had the ball first in the extra period, and facing fourth-and-one from the 16 called timeout and decided to go for it. Moore appeared to bobble the handoff, but pulled it in and gained 2 yards. He then picked up another first down on a 10-yard screen play — the same play he scored on earlier in the game — right before scoring the winner.

Baylor failed to get a first down on its possession. The game ended on Shawn Bell's incomplete pass on fourth-and-6 from the 21.

Austin Miller kicked a 47-yard field goal with 7:29 left in regulation to put Army ahead 20-17.

Baylor responded by going 73 yards in 14 plays for Ryan Havens' tying 24-yard field goal with 45 seconds left. Bell, who finished 25-of-33 for 241 yards, completed all six of his passes on the drive.

Baylor took a 10-0 lead in the first-quarter thanks to a Bell-to-Trent Shelton 7-yard TD pass and a 47-yard Havens field goal.

Army's first three possessions Saturday night ended at the Baylor 19. Miller missed his first two attempts before finally kicking a 36-yarder with 5:23 left in the first half.

The first miss was officially listed as a blocked kick, but Miller's 37-yarder got only a couple of feet off the ground and went into the back of an Army lineman. Miller was wide left on a 36-yard attempt early in the second quarter.

Jeremy Trimble returned a punt 59 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 10-10 in the third quarter for the Black Knights.

Paul Mosley ran 2 yards for Baylor's first rushing touchdown of the season and a 17-10 lead late in the third quarter.

That 27-yard scoring drive was set up when Army quarterback David Peveto was blindsided on a blitz by safety Maurice Linguist and lost the ball. Vincent Rhodes recovered.

But Army quickly responded as Peveto threw a screen pass to Moore for a 21-yard score to re-tie the score at 17-17.

BAYLOR 17, KANSAS STATE 3
SEPT. 30 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 30,752

Baylor's defense held a Big 12 opponent out of the end zone for the first time ever and Shawn Bell recorded his 12th career 200-yard passing game as the Bears registered Baylor's first-ever win over Kansas State 17-3.

The Bears, who were out-scored 227-48 in the teams' first five meetings, became the first team to hold Kansas State without a touchdown since a 26-3 loss to Syracuse in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl.

Kansas State out-gained Baylor 341-312 on 10 more plays, but two key turnovers thwarted Wildcat scoring opportunities.

On its second possession of the game, Kansas State marched 74 yards in 10 plays to the Baylor 14 where the Wildcats faced third-and-six. Clayton Thomas rushed to the Baylor 10; but Anthony Arline forced Thomas to fumble, and Alton Widemon pounced on the loose ball.

Widemon again recovered a fumble in the third. Josh Freeman connected with Yamon Figurs down the left sideline on a 2nd and 20 from Kansas State's 20. Figurs got past James Todd, who chased down Figurs and forced the fumble at the Baylor 12.

Those were K-State's only two ventures into the Baylor red zone.

Bell finished 25-of-46 for 282 yards and two TDs, tying Don Trull's school record for career 200-yard games. The first scoring strike was a 75-yard toss to Trent Shelton, who snagged the pass near midfield and raced down the left sideline for the game's first score. It was the longest pass play of Bell's career and tied for the 20th-longest pass in Baylor history.

Kansas State got a 41-yard Jeff Snodgrass field goal late in the first half as Baylor held its sixth consecutive opponent without a first-quarter score for the first time since the 1990-91 seasons.

Baylor held Kansas State on three plays to open the second half, and Queito Teasley returned the ensuing punt 47 yards to the Wildcats' 33. The Bears followed with a seven-play drive that culminated in a Bell-to-Dominique Zeigler 11-yard TD pass.

The Bears added a 22-yard Ryan Havens field goal late in the third, capitalizing on the first of Dwain Crawford's two interceptions on the night.

Zeigler finished with eight catches for 73 yards, while Shelton recorded his second 100-yard game of the season (3-107).

BAYLOR 34, COLORADO 31 OT
OCT. 7 • FOLSOM FIELD • BOULDER, COLO. • 47,065

Joe Pawelek leapt to snag Bernard Jackson's pass at the goal line on third-and-seven, ending the game and giving Baylor a 34-31 victory in triple-overtime.

Baylor's game-winning points came off the foot of Ryan Havens, who booted a 22-yard field goal in the first possession of the third overtime. Colorado rushed twice for a total of four yards on the two plays prior to Pawelek's interception.

While Havens' field goal and Pawelek's interception were the deciding plays, the game's biggest play came on fourth-and-seven at the Colorado 10 in the second overtime. That is when Shawn Bell found Trent Shelton in the front left corner of the end zone for a TD. Havens' extra point tied the game at 31-31 and sent it to a third extra period.

Pawelek's game-ending interception was Baylor's third pick of the day and the second in which Pawelek played a roll. Early in the second quarter, Pawelek blitzed and got a clean shot on Jackson. The ball popped out of Jackson's hand, and an alert Corey Ford jumped to pull it out of the air. That set up Baylor's first score of the day, a 47-yard Havens field goal.

That cut the Colorado lead to 7-3 as the Buffaloes took the game's first possession 80 yards in 11 plays, capped by Mell Holliday's 32-yard scoring run.

Baylor gained its first lead just under the two-minute mark in the second quarter as Bell connected with Trey Payne from 17 yards out.

Colorado knotted the score at 10-10 on a Mason Crosby field goal late in the third, but Baylor recaptured the lead at the 9:24 mark in the fourth on Paul Mosley's 28-yard TD run. The Buffaloes responded immediately, marching 80 yards in 12 plays to re-tie the game at 17-17; the drive culminated with a 9-yard Byron Ellis TD run with 4:13 remaining. That sent the game to overtime as neither team scored again in regulation.

Mosley, who also had a 1-yard TD run in the first overtime, finished with 85 yards rushing on 20 carries.

Bell was 31-of-44 for 272 yards and two TDs, breaking a Baylor record with his 13th career 200-yard game.

Pawelek led all players with 14 tackles, including 11 solo stops.

GAME RECAPS

No. 6 TEXAS 63, BAYLOR 31

OCT. 14 • ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS • 41,358

Sixth-ranked Texas overcame a 10-0 first-quarter deficit and turned five Baylor turnovers into 35 points as the Longhorns defeated the Bears 63-31 in the third-highest scoring game in Baylor football history.

Baylor stunned the Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium crowd of 88,966 on its first offensive play. Shawn Bell executed a play-action fake perfectly and hit a streaking Trent Shelton down the middle of the field for a 67-yard TD pass.

The Bears held Texas to a three-and-out on the ensuing possession and then marched 51 yards in nine plays to the Texas 10. However, Baylor was forced to settle for a 27-yard Ryan Havens field goal.

The remainder of the first half belonged to Texas, though, as the Longhorns scored four second-quarter TDs to build a 28-10 lead.

Baylor answered on the opening drive of the second half, driving 80 yards in 10 plays.

Dominique Zeigler capped the drive with an end-around pass back to Bell for a 17-yard TD. It was the first TD pass of Zeigler's career and the first TD reception of Bell's career.

After two Texas TD drives, Baylor pulled back to within 16 points at 42-24 when Paul Mosley split through the middle on a 56-yard TD run to end the third quarter.

Texas put the game away midway through the fourth, scoring three TDs in a 104-second span. The last two TDs came off Baylor turnovers, including the Horns' second defensive score of the game.

Baylor capped the scoring with 13 seconds remaining as Bell connected with Jacoby Jones from nine yards out.

Bell finished 25-of-47 for 303 yards, two TDs and one interception. It was the first 300-yard game of Bell's career and the first by a Baylor quarterback since Aaron Karas' 359-yard day against Kansas in 2002.

Shelton notched his third 100-yard game of the season, snagging six passes for 114 yards and a score. Thomas White established career highs with six receptions for 95 yards. Shelton and White were two of 11 different Baylor players to record at least one reception in the game.

Baylor was held to 27 yards rushing, 56 of which came on Mosley's TD run. Baylor lost 40 yards rushing on five sacks.

BAYLOR 36, KANSAS 35

OCT. 21 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 36,125

Shawn Bell's 10-yard TD pass to Dominique Zeigler with 68 seconds remaining capped the third-largest comeback in Baylor history as the Bears rallied from 18 points down in the fourth quarter for a 36-35 Homecoming victory.

The comeback tied Baylor's 1936 21-18 victory at Texas as the program's biggest fourth-quarter comeback as the Bears scored 19 points in the game's final 9:22 to stun the Jayhawks.

The game-winning TD pass was Bell's fifth of the day, breaking a Baylor single-game record which he already shared with three others. Bell also established Baylor single-season and career TD pass records during the game.

Baylor's chances to snap an eight-game Homecoming losing streak looked slim when Anthony Webb intercepted Bell with 12:40 remaining in the fourth. The Bears got the ball back at the 10:38 mark, but Bell missed on a first-down pass attempt.

From that point on, though, Bell was 13-of-17 for 222 yards and three TDs, the first of which was a 42-yard strike to Trent Shelton on third-and-12.

Baylor got the ball back at the 5:33 mark and quickly marched 84 yards on four plays, culminating in a 4-yard Bell-to-Mosley TD pass. The key play in the drive was a swing pass to Zeigler that resulted in a 60-yard gain to the Kansas 4. The Bears scored on the next play, but the two-point attempt failed leaving the deficit at 35-30.

After forcing Kansas into a three-and-out, the Bears regained possession with 2:43 remaining. Baylor's game-winning drive covered 58 yards in nine plays. The key play on the drive was Zeigler's diving catch falling out of bounds at the Kansas 10 on third-and-10. Baylor scored on the next play.

Dwain Crawford intercepted Adam Barmann's fourth-and-22 pass on the game's final play. It marked the second time in three weeks that Baylor ended a game with an interception.

Bell finished 33-of-55 for 394 yards, establishing Baylor records for completions and yards in a game. It marked the fifth time in Bell's career and second time this season that Baylor trailed or was tied in the fourth quarter and Bell led the Bears to victory.

Zeigler finished with seven catches for 122 yards, while Shelton snagged six receptions for 104 yards and two scores.

No. 22 TEXAS A&M 31, BAYLOR 21

OCT. 28 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 51,385

Mike Goodson rumbled 64 yards on a third-and-four with 2:15 remaining to seal 22nd-ranked Texas A&M's 31-21 victory over the Bears in front of a stadium-record crowd of 51,385.

The Bears suffered more than just the loss of the game as senior quarterback Shawn Bell sustained a career-ending knee injury during the fourth quarter.

Texas A&M snapped a 21-21 tie on Layne Neumann's 22-yard field goal with 6:32 remaining. Baylor managed one first down on its ensuing possession, but the Bears were forced to punt the ball away with 4:14 to play.

The Aggies picked up one first down and then essentially put the game away with Martellus Bennett's TD run.

Baylor had one final chance as Dominique Zeigler tried to connect with a wide open Trent Shelton on a flanker pass; however, the ball just tipped off Shelton's hands and landed incomplete. Bell's replacement, redshirt freshman Blake Szymanski, was intercepted four plays later to end Baylor's chances.

Bell finished the game 14-of-20 for 260 yards and one TD. He ended his career as the owner of 21 school records, including every major career and season passing record save career passing yardage, in which he finished second (329 yards shy of J.J. Joe's mark).

Zeigler caught five passes for 180 yards and a TD; he had 166 yards on four snags in the first half.

Texas A&M took the game's first lead on a 3-yard Bennett TD reception from Stephen McGee with 8:13 remaining in the first quarter; however, the Aggies missed the extra point.

Baylor answered 78 seconds later on a 79-yard Bell-to-Zeigler TD pass.

After a 2-yard Jorvorskie Lane TD run early in the second quarter, Brandon Whitaker found the end zone from 3 yards out at the 9:27 mark.

The Aggies recaptured the lead on the first half's final score with 7:12 remaining before the break. On third-and-five, McGee connected with Bennett, who bounced off a would-be tackler and raced 75 yards for a TD.

Baylor pulled even again at 21-21 on the first possession of the third quarter. Paul Mosley capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run at the 10:19 mark.

Shawn Bell's 10-yard TD pass to Dominique Zeigler with 68 seconds remaining capped the third-largest comeback in Baylor history as the Bears rallied from 18 points down in the fourth quarter for a 36-35 Homecoming victory.

The comeback tied Baylor's 1936 21-18 victory at Texas as the program's biggest fourth-quarter comeback as the Bears scored 19 points in the game's final 9:22 to stun the Jayhawks.

The game-winning TD pass was Bell's fifth of the day, breaking a Baylor single-game record which he already shared with three others. Bell also established Baylor single-season and career TD pass records during the game.

Baylor's chances to snap an eight-game Homecoming losing streak looked slim when Anthony Webb intercepted Bell with 12:40 remaining in the fourth. The Bears got the ball back at the 10:38 mark, but Bell missed on a first-down pass attempt.

From that point on, though, Bell was 13-of-17 for 222 yards and three TDs, the first of which was a 42-yard strike to Trent Shelton on third-and-12.

Baylor got the ball back at the 5:33 mark and quickly marched 84 yards on four plays, culminating in a 4-yard Bell-to-Mosley TD pass. The key play in the drive was a swing pass to Zeigler that resulted in a 60-yard gain to the Kansas 4. The Bears scored on the next play, but the two-point attempt failed leaving the deficit at 35-30.

After forcing Kansas into a three-and-out, the Bears regained possession with 2:43 remaining. Baylor's game-winning drive covered 58 yards in nine plays. The key play on the drive was Zeigler's diving catch falling out of bounds at the Kansas 10 on third-and-10. Baylor scored on the next play.

Dwain Crawford intercepted Adam Barmann's fourth-and-22 pass on the game's final play. It marked the second time in three weeks that Baylor ended a game with an interception.

Bell finished 33-of-55 for 394 yards, establishing Baylor records for completions and yards in a game. It marked the fifth time in Bell's career and second time this season that Baylor trailed or was tied in the fourth quarter and Bell led the Bears to victory.

Zeigler finished with seven catches for 122 yards, while Shelton snagged six receptions for 104 yards and two scores.

GAME RECAPS

TEXAS TECH 55, BAYLOR 21
NOV. 4 • JONES AT&T STADIUM • LUBBOCK, TEXAS • 51,303

Texas Tech outscored Baylor 48-7 in the game's final 38 minutes, overcoming an early 14-7 deficit for a 55-21 victory over the Bears at Jones AT&T Stadium.

Graham Harrell torched the Baylor secondary for 483 yards and four TDs on 35-of-52 passing. Three of his TD strikes went to Joel Filani, who finished with 212 yards on eight receptions.

As a team, Texas Tech tallied 682 yards of total offense. Meanwhile, Baylor managed just 217 yards, its lowest single-game output in more than a year.

Tech marched 80 yards on 10 plays on the game's first possession; the Raiders capped the drive with a 20-yard Harrell-to-Edward Britton TD pass.

Baylor answered with 4:24 remaining in the first quarter. Blake Szymanski, who was making his first career start in place of the injured Shawn Bell, connected with Trent Shelton for a 56-yard TD strike.

A James Todd interception set up Baylor's next score as he picked off a Harrell pass at the Tech 28 and returned it to the Red Raiders' 3.

One play later, Szymanski dropped back to pass and then sprinted into the end zone off right tackle.

However, that was the only lead the Bears would enjoy as Tech scored the next five TDs to take a commanding 42-14 lead by midway through the third quarter.

Baylor finally snapped the Tech 35-0 run on another Szymanski 3-yard TD run late in the third quarter.

Szymanski finished the game 16-of-30 for 197 yards with one TD and one interception. He also had 25 yards rushing on 22 rushes, six of which were sacks.

Thomas White led the Bears in receiving with five snags for 46 yards.

Joe Pawelek led Baylor defensively with nine tackles, including one sack.

OKLAHOMA STATE 66, BAYLOR 24
NOV. 11 • BOONE PICKENS STADIUM • STILLWATER, OKLA. • 35,430

Keith Toston rushed for 92 yards and two touchdowns and Oklahoma State capitalized on six Baylor turnovers for a 66-24 win.

Bobby Reid hit tight end Brandon Pettigrew for two first-half touchdowns as the Cowboys built a 38-3 halftime lead on the strength of 28 second-quarter points.

Blake Szymanski passed for 262 yards and two touchdowns for the Bears, but he was intercepted three times and lost a fumble. The loss eliminated Baylor from bowl consideration.

The Cowboys took control early, scoring 49 unanswered points to take a 52-3 lead early in the third quarter. Five Oklahoma State touchdowns came after Baylor turnovers.

Oklahoma State led 38-3 at halftime. On the second play of the second half, defensive tackle Darnell Smith returned an interception 28 yards for a touchdown. Five plays later, free safety Donovan Woods returned Dominique Zeigler's fumble 57 yards for another touchdown for the Cowboys.

Reid started the rout, hitting Pettigrew over the middle on a 9-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter that put the Cowboys ahead 10-3. The play came after Oklahoma State's Paschal Smith recovered Trent Shelton's fumbled punt return.

Toston's touchdown runs of 27 and 8 yards put the Cowboys ahead 31-3 in the second quarter. After Martel Van Zant intercepted Szymanski at the Baylor 42, Reid again hit Pettigrew, this time for a 13-yard score.

Dantrell Savage rushed for 116 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries for the Cowboys — all in the first half. Reid finished 9-of-10 passing for 88 yards before being replaced by Zac Robinson in the second half.

Szymanski led Baylor on three second-half scoring drives, connecting for touchdowns with Trey Payne from 8 yards and David Gettis from 11 yards.

Paul Mosley finished with 62 yards on eight carries and a touchdown to lead the Baylor rushing attack.

No. 6 OKLAHOMA 36, BAYLOR 10
NO. 18 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS • 31,221

No. 16 Oklahoma scored 23 third-quarter points to pull away from Baylor en route to a 36-10 victory at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Reggie Smith returned one of his two interceptions 42 yards for a TD and set up another score with his other, and third-string tailback Chris Brown ran 24 times for 169 yards and a score.

Oklahoma overcame five turnovers, including fumbles by Smith and Brown that led to Baylor's only scores.

Malcolm Kelly fumbled at the end of a 57-yard gain while the sophomore was running down the sideline toward the end zone in the first quarter. That was one of three turnovers by the Sooners in the first half, when their only two touchdowns came only 69 seconds apart.

The next catch for Kelly was his 21-yard TD on the opening possession after halftime as Oklahoma scored 23 points in less than 10 minutes. Kelly finished with five catches for 115 yards, a week after he tied the school record with 11 catches.

After Alonzo Dotson sacked Blake Szymanski for a safety, Juakin Iglesias returned the ensuing free kick 88 yards for a TD to make it 36-3 with 5:30 left in the third quarter.

Brown had a 35-yard run on the play before Kelly's touchdown, and had a 27-yard gain on the Sooners' first scoring drive.

Paul Thompson threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Joe Jon Finley with 5:23 left in the first quarter, on the drive that Kelly had two third-down catches. After a 15-yard grab for one first down, Kelly was cutting across the middle on another third down when he reached back to make a one-handed grab of a pass thrown behind him.

Baylor then had only two plays before Smith's interception return made it 13-0.

Smith also set up Baylor's only offense score on the ensuing possession, when he botched a punt that was recovered by Braelon Davis at the Oklahoma 24. Ryan Havens kicked a 38-yard field goal.

Davis also recovered the fumble by Kelly, when he dropped the ball at the Baylor 10 trying to fend off another defender, and returned a fumble by Brown in the fourth quarter 56 yards for a touchdown.

Szymanski was 22-of-45 for 188 yards and the two interceptions. He was sacked five times.

BAYLOR

ALL-TIME RESULTS

NOTE: The rankings indicated from 1936 through 2006 in all instances are at game time, based on The Associated Press poll. Baylor's ranking is listed first, the opponent's ranking second. Early season games from 1936 through 1949 have no dash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and again from 1968 until 1988, the AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10 and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, was Football Rankings, College Teams in The Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C., McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Lawrence
ELKINS

Flanker
1993 Inductee

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, Baylor flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. The first two-time consensus All-American (1963-64) in school history still shares Baylor's single-game record for receptions with 12, which he set against Texas in 1963. In 1963 he also established a then-NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards and helped the Bears defeat LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Thomas
EVERETT

Free Safety
2006 Inductee

A two-time first-team All-America selection, free safety Thomas Everett earned the 1986 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Twice named Southwest Conference Most Valuable Player and first-team all-conference, he was voted the conference's 1986-87 Athlete of the Year. Named to Baylor's 1980s All-Decade Team, Everett was a fourth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played nine seasons in the NFL with the Steelers, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Hayden
FRY

Quarterback
2003 Inductee

Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner at Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 Associated Press rankings in both 1949 and 1950. He made his most notable mark on the college football world as a head coach, spending some 37 seasons in the Division I-A ranks with stops at SMU, North Texas and Iowa. Fry, who was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997, registered 232 victories as a I-A head coach, 142 of which came at the University of Iowa from 1979-98.

Bill
GLASS

Offensive Guard
1985 Inductee

Bill Glass was a unanimous consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. As a senior in 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a 13-7 Sugar Bowl victory over previously undefeated Tennessee. Glass was voted the Houston Post's 1956 SWC Most Valuable Player. After a successful NFL playing career, he became one of the nation's most noted evangelists. Glass was a 1987 Texas Sports Hall of Fame inductee.

Morley
JENNINGS

Head Coach
1973 Inductee

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell.

Barton
KOCH

Lineman
1974 Inductee

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 Koch made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.

Mike
SINGLETARY

Linebacker
1995 Inductee

Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era and arguably Baylor's finest football player ever. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro eight times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement. Inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, Singletary received a 2006 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, and is the only Baylor Bear to be inducted in both the College (1995) and Pro (1998) Football Halls of Fame.

James Ray
SMITH

Offensive Tackle
1987 Inductee

James Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in both 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was selected as a 2004 Cleveland Browns Legend.

Grant
TEAFF

Head Coach
2001 Inductee

Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach over a 21-year span from 1972 to 1992. He compiled a 128-105-6 record and led the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings. He was selected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995 and currently serves as executive director of the American Football Coaches Association.

BAYLOR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

To support the overall mission of the University by providing a nationally competitive intercollegiate athletics program that attracts, nurtures and graduates student-athletes who, under the guidance of a high-quality staff, pursue excellence in their respective sports, while representing Baylor with character and integrity. Consistent with the Christian values of the University, the department will carry out this mission in a way that reflects fair and equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff.

Baylor University is an equal opportunity institution whose programs, services, activities and operations are without discrimination as to sex, color, or national origin, and are not opposed to qualified handicapped persons.

The Baylor Athletic Media Relations Office appreciates your interest in Baylor football and looks forward to assisting you during the 2007 season. Our offices are located on the east side of Floyd Casey Stadium.

To assist in your coverage, please take time to read the information found on this page. These policies have been established in consideration of the media's needs, as well as those of Baylor's student-athletes and coaches to create a positive work environment for all.

For further information, contact the Media Relations Office at 254.710.2743.

DAVE CAMPBELL MEDIA CENTER

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs and media guides are provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also are provided. Complete sets of all information is available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

Several "O-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working media area and complimentary wireless Internet is also available. On game day, Baylor telecommunications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head coach Guy Morriss, offensive coordinator Lee Hays, defensive coordinator Larry Hofer and requested football student-athletes meet with the media each Tuesday preceding a game in Floyd Casey Stadium's Galloway Suite (third floor of the North end zone building). Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with student-athletes or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m., Sunday preceding the media luncheon. Players who appear at Tuesday's press conference will NOT be available following practice that day.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Working media and photographer credentials for Baylor's 2007 home games against Rice, Texas State, Colorado, Texas, Texas Tech and Oklahoma State will be handled by Associate AD for Communications Nick Joos.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working media only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Nick Joos, Associate AD/Communications, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711 ... FAX (254) 710-1369.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium or on game day at media will call in the elevator lobby of the Floyd Casey Stadium press box.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor student-athletes and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Tuesday through Thursday. Requests should be directed to Nick Joos.

All interview requests must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office with at least one day advance notice. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be given out.

Coaches and student-athletes are not available for interviews on the Friday prior to a game or before the game on game day.

SUNDAY AVAILABILITY

Baylor head coach Guy Morriss will hold a media briefing each Sunday at 2 p.m. CT during the season to offer analysis of the preceding game and preview the upcoming opponent. Morriss' Sunday briefings are held in his Floyd Casey Stadium office.

Media members wishing to participate via phone may do so by contacting a member of the Baylor Athletic Media Relations staff. Excerpts and Sunday notes will be available on Baylor's official website, www.BaylorBears.com, by 6 p.m. CT each week.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Baylor locker room is located below the north end zone at Floyd Casey Stadium. The visiting locker room is located beneath the east stands.

Baylor coach Guy Morriss and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

BIG 12 TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Big 12 Conference, Baylor head coach Guy Morriss will participate in the league's weekly teleconference. The teleconferences will be conducted each Monday from Aug. 27 until Dec. 3 from 10 a.m. until noon CT. Morriss' scheduled time is 11 a.m. to 11:10 a.m. CT each Monday.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should consult the Big 12's weekly release or contact the league communications staff for further details.

A replay of the briefing will be available after 4 p.m. CT.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

All Baylor football practices are open to the media and public. As a general rule, video and still photographers may shoot the entire pre-practice (stretching period) and the first 15 minutes of actual practice time. At no time should photographers shoot from the end zone.

Following each session, head coach Guy Morriss will conduct a group interview with the media. A member of the AMR staff will be on hand at every practice to assist the media.

BAYLOR ON THE WEB

Statistics and news releases on Baylor football and all 18 Baylor athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at www.BaylorBears.com, the official website of Baylor Athletics and a member of CSTV Online, Inc.

WEBSITES & NEW MEDIA

Web-based media sponsoring "message boards" or "chat rooms" that allow posting of anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.

Any online service that places emphasis on the recruitment of potential student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to "freelance" or "fan-based" sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news gathering organization.

Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such is not permitted.

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more from the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed by the conference office to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

BIG 12 FOOTBALL MEDIA RESOURCE

BAYLOR/ISP SPORTS NETWORK

Baylor University and ISP Sports are in the third year of a seven-year agreement that provides the company with exclusive multi-media rights for the school's highly successful 18-sport intercollegiate athletics program. In the first two years of the agreement, the ISP-Baylor partnership has generated record sales revenues.

With the partnership, the university is guaranteed an annual rights fee and shares in additional revenues, too. In consideration, ISP Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Baylor sports, including a radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications and all signage in university athletic facilities.

The industry leader in collegiate sports marketing partnerships, ISP Sports currently owns the multi-media rights for more than 40 university, conference and bowl game partnerships around the nation, including Washington, BYU, Georgia and Florida State, to name a few. In addition, ISP Sports also represents the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco, the Big East Conference and recently has partnered with the Atlantic Coast Conference to create a national radio network for the league.

Jeff Miller (Wake Forest, 1989) is in his second year as General Manager of the Baylor-ISP Network and as an ISP Assistant Vice President. Miller previously worked for ISP as the Sales Manager of the Marconi Pennsylvania Classic in Pittsburgh. Prior to his return to ISP, he was the Vice President/Tournament Director at the Constellation Energy Classic golf tournament in Baltimore. Miller and his wife, Laura, have two children, Dominic and Meda.

Doug McNamee (Baylor, 2003) is in his third year with the Baylor-ISP Sports Network, and his second as the Assistant General Manager for the property. He joined the staff from the Baylor baseball program, where he served as a graduate administrative assistant for coach Steve Smith.

Katy Ludington (Michigan State, 2006) is in her first year with the Baylor/ISP Sports Network. She joined the Baylor team after completing her Master of Sport Administration at Belmont in Nashville, Tenn., and serving as an intern with the Vanderbilt/ISP Sports Network.

The "Voice of the Bears," John Morris (Baylor, 1980), also is a member of the Baylor-ISP team. Morris enters his 21st year broadcasting Baylor football and men's basketball in 2007-08. The Kentucky native also produces the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat," daily Big 12 reports and co-hosts the award-winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show. Morris also serves as moderator for "Guy Talk," with head football coach Guy Morris, during the season, and the "State Farm Baylor Hour" January through May. This is Morris' 13th year as the signature voice of Baylor athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon. In November 2002, Morris was presented the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award by the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce.

Three-time Academic All-American J.J. Joe returns for his fourth season as color analyst. The Bears' leading passer for four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993, Joe graduated as Baylor's career passing and total offense leader and is one of the school's most decorated student-athletes as a three-time Academic All-American. He currently works as a Vice President-Commercial Banking for Bank of Texas in Dallas and resides in Hurst, Texas.

Ricky Thompson returns for his eighth season providing sideline color and analysis. Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and was the Bears' leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson is a member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame and is President of Waco's First National Bank of Central Texas.

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 21st year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award-winning Director of Engineering for the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas.

Every play of Baylor Football 2007 plus "Guy Talk" and the "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" are available worldwide on the Internet at the official web site of Baylor athletics, www.BaylorBears.com.

For additional information on the multi-media rights held by the Baylor-ISP Network or for corporate partnership/advertising opportunities, call 254.710.3076 or visit us on the web at www.BaylorBears.com.
